Highway Toll Is Cut On First S-D Day

By The Associated Press

The nation's first observance of Safe Driving Day appeared today to have succeeded in cutting the toll of deaths and accidents on the highways and streets.

In the 24-hour period ending at midnight a survey showed 45 persons lost their lives in traffic mishaps. That number compared with 64 during a Dec. 1 survey made by The Associated Press for comparative purposes.

A year ago yesterday, Dec. 16, 60 traffic deaths occurred. In the first 10 months this year traffic deaths averaged 97 a day and the average in both 1952 and 1953 was 104 a day.

The nation's major cities, it was indicated, contributed largely to the reduction in traffic fatalities.

City Fatalities Light

Among the 12 biggest cities, only three fatalities were reported, one each in New York, Cleveland and Pittsburgh. None was reported in Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, Detroit, Baltimore, St. Louis, Washington, D.C., Boston or San Francisco.

No traffic deaths were reported in any major city in the six New England states.

Many other big cities reported no traffic deaths. Neither did 25 of the 48 states which observed the nation's first mass effort to save lives by safe driving.

Adm. H. B. Miller (ret.), director of President Eisenhower's Action Committee on Traffic Safety, which sponsored S-D Day, commented on the toll:

"We thank the millions of Americans who sincerely tried to avoid an accident—and succeeded. If we can do it on S-D Day, we can do it every day.

Wanted Lower Toll

"Naturally, we wish the S-D toll had been lower just as we wish the traffic toll could be lower every day. But we feel the reduced toll offers definite proof that aroused public opinion ond concerted effort can and will bring about a substantial reduction in the traffic toll and sooner than we think."

Two states—New Mexico and Indiana—reported the biggest death toll, with four killed in each state. All the fatalities occurred in rural areas. Four persons died in a one-car accident near the Arizona-

Key Legislators Favor Trade Of Yanks, Chinese

Students For 57 U. S May Swap 35 Jailed Americans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Several key lawmakers said today they favor efforts to exchange 35 Chinese students in this country for 57 Americans detained in Red China, including 11 airmen imprisoned by the Communists as "spies."

Rep. Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts, retiring speaker of the House, said that if the students want to go to Red China he would welcome any negotiations that might lead to such an exchange.

But he and Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) retiring head of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said there must be no deal which would force the return to his homeland of any Chinese who wished to remain in this country.

May Consider Exchange

The State Department indicated through Press Officer Lincoln White yesterday that the United States might consider any offer forthcoming from Red China to exchange for the Americans Chinese students who have applied for exit permits but thus far have been denied them.

X-Rays Reveal Pope Suffers Small Hernia

To Need Operation; No Ulcer Found In Study Of Pontiff

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Preliminary reports of X-rays taken today of Pope Pius XII showed that he is suffering from a small hernia of the esophagus and resultant gastritis.

This means, in general, that there is an abnormal pocket in the tube that carries food from the throat to the stomach, and there is also inflammation of the stomach.

Specialists planned a detailed study of the X-ray plates later today but the Pope's personal physician Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi described the hernia as of "small importance" and added that the examination did not show the presence of an ulcer.

To Need Operation

Dr. Raffaele Paolucci di Valmaggiore, famous surgeon who assisted in the examination, said later that an operation must eventually be performed if the Pope is to be cured of the hernia, but there is "nothing urgent" about the present condition of the 78 year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church.

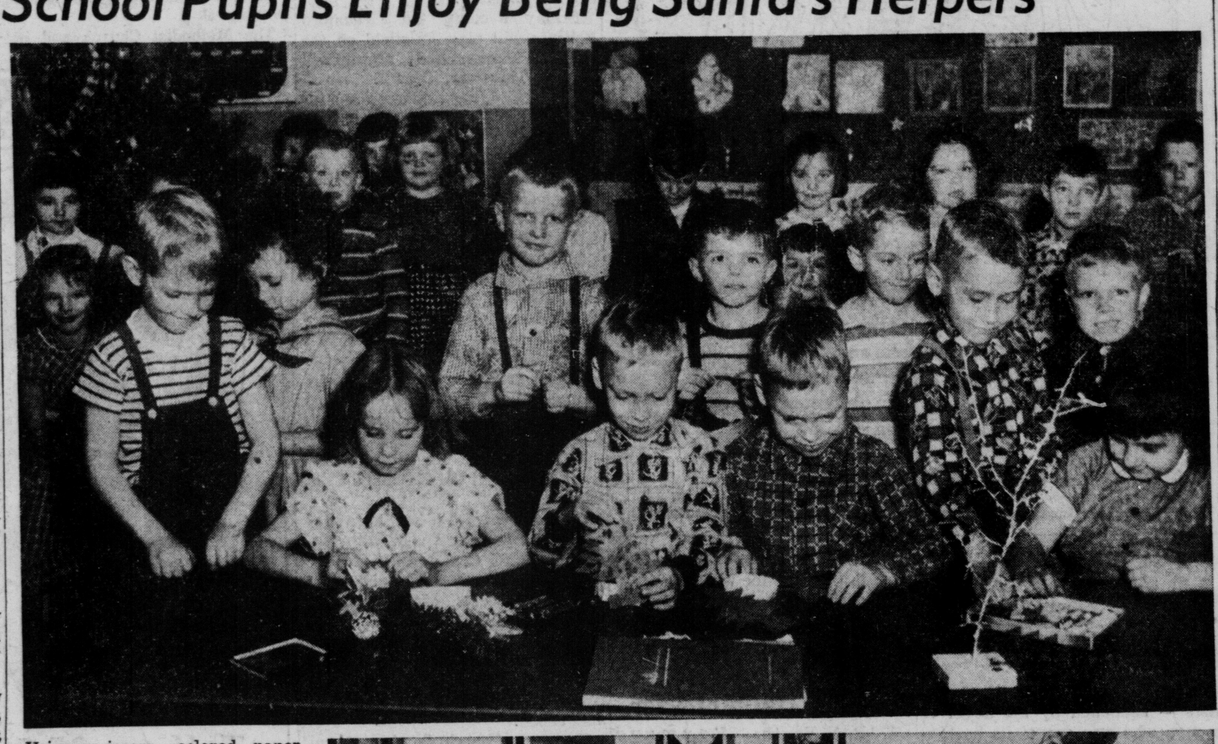
"What we will now do is to try to re-establish his strength. Only then will we study his condition again in view of an operation," Dr. Paolucci said.

"This operation is not necessary immediately. The most important thing for the time being is that the Pope regain his strength through an increase in direct feeding. Now he can swallow very well."

Could Survive Operation

Dr. Paolucci had said last week that the Pope could survive a hernia operation, which he described as a "very minor and local affair." But he said he "would have very little chance" of pulling through major surgery because of his age and weak condition following his grave collapse Dec. 2.

School Pupils Enjoy Being Santa's Helpers



Using scissors, colored paper, paste and crayons — plus a touch of childish ingenuity — boys and girls in Salem public school elementary grades have made Christmas decorations and gifts for their mothers and fathers.

These they will take home tomorrow when classes close for the holiday recess. Today special Christmas programs and parties were held in many of the classrooms.

Typical of the industrious children at Christmastime are those in Miss Inez Heisler's first grade at Fourth Street School. The six-year-olds have fashioned tiny white nutcups, thornbush trees painted white with a salt and flour mixture and highlighted with pine, paper ornaments and srinklings of silver; and pine cone and ribbon corsages which read, "For Mother."

Bottom — Gathering around the Christmas tree are first graders Rosemary Fithian, Larry Fester, Alden Gross and Christy Christofaris.

Defense Claims No Motive Has Been Proven

Jury To Get Case Friday; To Decide Fate Of Osteopath

CLEVELAND (AP)—Defense attorneys, fighting to save Dr. Samuel Sheppard from the electric chair, repeatedly hurled a challenge and a key question at the prosecution today—

"Show th motive! What reason could have driven him to kill his wife."

Both sides are delivering final arguments to the jury now. By agreement, they will finish the summations today, and the case will be given to the jury tomorrow morning.

Sheppard's lawyers said the whole prosecution case is based on "flimsy evidence," and the state has failed to produce a believable motive.

Sheppard has been charged with first-degree murder in the death of his wife Marilyn last July 4. He says he is innocent, that a "bushy haired" intruder killed her and injured him the fight that followed.

4½ Months Since Arrest

"It's about 4½ months since Sam was arrested," defense attorney Arthur Petersilge told the jury. But, he continued:

"The state still does not know how she was killed, the state still does not know with what weapon she was killed, the state still doesn't know why she was killed.

"All the state has had to offer is a series of suppositions, guesses, hypotheses about what occurred.

"And yet, on the basis of that rather flimsy evidence, the state of Ohio is asking you to send Sam Sheppard to the electric chair."

The prosecution claims Sheppard no longer loved his wife, and was thinking of divorce.

In support of that, assistant prosecutor Thomas Parrino dwelt heavily on Sheppard's love affair with Susan Hayes, an attractive, 24-year-old hospital technician.

Sheppard and Miss Hayes admitted illicit relations. They shared a bedroom in the home of his friends in Los Angeles last March, they said.

Parrino, gesturing vigorously with his arms and fists, raised his voice to a shout when he said of the Los Angeles episode:

"Can anyone here doubt that — where you live so brazenly and

14 Mishaps Occur In Area On S-D Day

National Safe Drivers Day was observed here yesterday, but local law enforcement agencies still had to investigate 14 traffic mishaps in the 24-hour period.

One injury was reported and two persons were arrested.

The first accident reported was that involving a car driven by Edgar A. Hurst, 33, of East Liverpool and a truck operated by Clinton Conrad, 44, of Youngstown.

According to state highway patrolmen, Hurst's car struck the rear of the truck at 4:10 a.m. on Route 7, five miles south of Rogers.

Taken to East Liverpool City Hospital, Hurst is reported in critical condition this morning with a chest injury, compound fracture of the right leg, fractures of the collar bone and pelvis and lacerations of the face.

City police investigated two traffic mishaps yesterday.

Police said a car operated by Wallace Reed, 25, of New Brighton, Pa., struck the rear of an

First Deer Killed On Ohio Turnpike

Joseph A. Murray of Norwalk, O., has the dubious distinction of being the first motorist to kill a deer on the newly-opened section of the Ohio turnpike, Earl Ressler, Mahoning County game warden, reported today.

The mishap occurred at 7 p.m. Wednesday near the Youngstown interchange, about two miles east of Route 7. The deer, a doe weighing about 125 pounds was taken to a North Lima butcher to be dressed for a school cafeteria.

The front end of Murray's car sustained considerable damage.

Some Of 5,800 Rural School Pupils To Begin Yule Vacation

It soon will be Christmas holiday time for some 5,800 students in the Columbiana County rural system.

Seven of the schools will end sessions Friday afternoon while the other twelve will not leave out until Wednesday. All schools will resume classes Jan. 3.

Schools with the 11-day holiday are Rogers, Wayne Local, Oak Grove, Clarkson, Fairfield, New Waterford, Unity, Salineville. Franklin, United Local, Negley, and Knox Local.

A 16-day holiday is in store for pupils of Highlandtown, Fairview, No. 16, West Point, Elkton, Calcutta, and West Local.

The last school days before the long period of fun begins are filled with activity and excitement, including gift exchanges, parties, special assemblies, and entertainments.

Typical is United Local School, the largest of all, which will entertain parents Friday night with a Christmas pageant featuring the 95-voice mix chorus singing songs of the Nativity. Instrumental numbers will be heard, too.

Leo Lohr, the music teacher, will conduct the program.

Elkton School will have a special Yule program Friday night at 8, featuring singing and recitations by pupils in all eight grades.

Most of the school cafeterias will serve turkey and chicken menus the final day.

Return Of Workers Planned By Union, EF

Electric Furnace Co. officials and representatives of Local 3406, United Steelworkers of America, continued talks today to determine the procedure to be adopted for the return to work of 120 operational employes who have been on strike at the plant for the last 77 days.

At a conference Tuesday between representatives of both factions, a tentative plan to end the stoppage was agreed upon.

If the union membership agrees to the proposal at its meeting tonight, some of the workers will be called early next week, possibly Monday.

R. E. Coe, vice president of the company, said today that between 40 and 50 of the men will be at work by the end of the week, with the first of the group reporting earlier.

"The remainder will be recalled as soon as possible," he said.

Coe explained that the men will return on the basis of their seniority.

Tonight's membership meeting of the local is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the Union Hall on Prospect St.

No New Developments In Greenford Burglary

Classes resumed at Greenford School today as members of the Mahoning County Sheriff's office continued their investigation of a $500 safe burglary perpetrated there sometime Tuesday night.

The school was closed yesterday while deputies sought fingerprints and investigated damages. Sheriff Paul Langley said this morning, "There are no new developments."

It is believed the burglars remained in the building following the basketball game between Greenford and Goshen Tuesday night.

Christmas Trees Costly For 3 Canfield Youths

Christmas trees became expensive items to three Canfield men last night.

The trio — Jack Lanterman, 20, Jack Davis, 19, and Carl Fishel, 18 — were each fined $50 and costs Wednesday evening by Canfield Justice of the Peace Harry A. Walker after they pleaded guilty to cutting two trees on the property of H. Conner of RD 1, North Jackson.

State highway patrolmen and Mahoning County deputies arrested the three at 10:45 p.m. yesterday after Conner reported that an attempt was being made to steal fir trees from his property. The trio had already cut 2 trees when the authorities arrived.

Hooper Is Killed By Boat Propeller

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — C. E. Hooper, nationally known radio executive who founded the Hooper system of rating radio and television programs, was killed yesterday when he fell into the whirling blades of an air boat propeller while duck hunting on Great Salt Lake. He was 56.

He died a few minutes after he was brought to a Salt Lake City hospital, his body almost cut in two by the propeller.

Frank McClatchy, of Salt Lake City, one of two men with Hooper in the boat, said the radio executive jumped out of the craft when it lodged on a sand bar. He attempted to push it loose, slipped and fell into the spinning blades. An air boat has an airplane-like propeller mounted on the rear for use in shallow water.

Hooper was president of C. E. Hooper, Inc., New York City, which specializes in studies of radio audience measurement.

His home was in South Norwalk, Conn. He is survived by his widow and a daughter.

2 Die In Ohio S-D Day Traffic

96 Persons Injured, Highway Patrol Says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Safe Driving Day ended in Ohio with two dead and 96 injured in traffic accidents, according to the state highway patrol. The nation's goal yesterday was for a day free of traffic deaths.

Patrol headquarters said totals were virtually complete for the day, with a few late reports possible. Eorly morning hours seemed the most deadly.

The two deaths came early yesterday morning in northern Ohio. Both stemmed from car-truck collisions.

Dead are Emmett G. Temple, 25, of Cleveland and John R. E. Bovard, 32, of Ravenna. Temple's death was among the first for the day in the nation's toll. He died about 2:30 a.m. in Cleveland.

Patrol records showed 491 accidents recorded throughout the state.

In 418 of these, only property damage resulted, but the 96 injuries came from 74 accidents.

Cincinnati recorded one of the earliest traffic accidents, with police summoned for their first safety day call at 12:53 a.m.

Later Columbus police reported 2 accidents with injuries resulting from two of them.

Springfield tallied two accidents in the city and three others in Clark County, all minor, while marking its 209th deathless traffic day.

Dayton's first serious accident during the day came about 7 a.m. when a car struck a moving freight train.

Zanesville reported two accidents, no injuries.

New Driver's Exam Program To Be Tried

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohioans soon may need an appointment to take examinations for drivers' licenses.

Director U.C. Felty of the Department of Highway Safety announced the new plan and termed it a move "to offer better service to the public."

The program for examination by appointment was decided upon after Felty talked with Col. George Mingle, superintendent of the State Highway Patrol; C. Ervin Nofer, acting registrar of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles and Capt. M. A. Mock, head of the driver examination section of the patrol.

Franklin County will serve as the test area for the new plan, starting Jan. 2, Mock said. "Placing the program in effect in one county will give the driver examination section an opportunity to smooth out the procedure before adopting it over the entire state," he added.

Co-Worker's Death Softens Courthouse Christmas Spirit

LISBON — The spirit of Christmas — saddened by the death of a man who was one of its harbingers — came to the Courthouse today with the erection of a 15-foot blue spruce in the lobby.

The magnificent tree, with branches like huge oriental fans, was cut by Alvy G. McCormick Tuesday just ten minutes before he died of a heart attack.

Office workers say McCormick, county maintenance foreman, was perennially enthusiastic about putting up a Courthouse tree at Christmastime.

Strands of 200 vari-colored lights were festooned over the tree by David S. McMinn, custodian, who helped hew the spruce at the E. U. Whitacre residence on the Salem-Lisbon Road.

Dozens of sparkling red and silver ornaments, contributed by workers, add the finishing touch to the tree. Each is gaily initialed in white ink with the given name of the donor.

The interior of the Courthouse has been repainted in time for the holiday season.

McCormick and Pete Opencar worked the past three weeks decorating the upper half of the walls in cream, adding a lower border of mottled dark green.

The traditional carol songfest will be omitted this year in deference to the man for whom the tree symbolizes a kind of evergreen monument.

Business Needs Education

A particularly clear statement of the thinking behind business gifts to private colleges and universities has been made by Eugene Holman, president of Standard Oil of New Jersey.

"The material, intellectual and spiritual development of mankind rests on the accumulation of knowledge," declared Holman, announcing that his company has given a million dollars to non-tax-supported education this year.

He explained that Standard Oil supports tax-supported education involuntarily with its tax payments and feels, therefore, that it owes, its support to private education, too.

This is a widening concept among businessmen — that they owe their support to private education because private enterprise cannot survive without an abundant supply of educated citizens aware of the danger of leaving everything to public authority.

Tax-supported institutions obtain their income in the time-honored way of asking legislatures for more than they need and settling for what they expected to get. Voluntary institutions obtain theirs from the good will of people who believe there can be no progress without trained intellect.

Converts to th good will faction are being made with conspicuous success in business enterprise — source of the wealth that makes mass education possible.

Of Fear Without Foundation

J. Edgar Hoover's prompt action in declaring that the FBI has no interest whatever in this year's collegiate debate on recognition of Communist China will scotch the notion that affirmative debaters might be listed.

Hoover points out that his bureau has no intention of doing anything that would interfere with academic freedom. The FBI does not keep tab on collegiate debaters.

This deals with a rumor that started when a Duke University debater was warned by a Virginia congressman that his words might "embarrass" him the rest of his life. It won't be due to anything the FBI intends to do.

But while Hoover has cleared up the position on the FBI, he can give no guarantee that students' words never will be used against them. It has happened during congressional investigations.

When Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam testified at his own request before the House un-American Activities Committee on July 21, 1953, he learned that the committee's files contained voluminous reports about his views as a California schoolboy, when he was inclined toward views considered to be leftish in the years before World War I.

The position of a debater in the winter of 1954-1955 does not necessarily reflect his own opinion but that might take a lot of proving in 1994-1995, if the matter were reviewed 40 years later.

The Right To Know

In a perfect republic, all citizens would know their rights. No tyrant then could take advantage of their ignorance.

The United States is a close-to-perfect republic. But it will fall short of perfection until its citizens share the same knowledge of their rights.

It is still short of perfection today, on the 163rd anniversary of the adoption of the original Bill of Rights in 1791. Many Americans know noting at all about this cornerstone on which confidence in the republic was erected. Many have only fragmentary knowledge, leading to such dangerous misconceptions as the notion that the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution has no other use than to protect suspected Communists who do not want to testify against themselves.

It is possible in the United States for a child to finish his public school education without any knowledge of the Bill of Rights, with its fundamental guarantees of freedom of religion, speech and press, assembly and petition.

It is possible for a citizen of this republic to live and die without knowing how and why the dignity of man is protected here by civil guarantees that embody the basic concepts of Christianity.

Those who do not use it hurt both themselves and the republic that relies on knowledge of the truth, to keep men free.

Dec. 15 is a good day to read the Bill of Rights. It takes less than 10 minutes to learn what is still unattainable for most human beings after thousands of years of striving.

One of the best indications of age is a man being anxious to get home on time.

Don't try to be the whone cheese with your friends. You might be the offensive kind.

Political Myths

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Chance Remark Starts Widespread Rumors

Political myths have a way of developing out of a casual remark or natural incident and then evaporating.

Because the President is building a house on his farm near Gettysburg, Pa. for weekend use, it has been widely reported that he does not intend to run for re-election in 1956.

If a president indicates he doesn't want renomination, it is assumed in the political world that he doesn't think he can win the election. In this case, Eisenhower is supposed to be anxious for personal reasons not to serve a second term. Such reluctance, however, wll be nterpreted as a fear of defeat at the polls.

So far as the Republican politicians are concerned, they are virtually unanimous in wanting to see the President renominated. He can easily win the nomination because a president in power has enough strength in the party organization to get all the delegates he needs. The other potental candidates know it and will not throw their hats in the ring.

The classic remark of Speaker Champ Clark, just before 1916 when it was suggested he might oppose President Wilson can be cited as applicable today. He said: "If a president doesn't want the nomination and will not run on his own record, it isn't worth anything to anybody else in his party, either."

EVEN IF BY 1956 the record of President Eisenhower is good, the fact that he for one reason or another does not wish to stand on it in an election will be regarded as a sign of political weakness.

It can, therefore, be taken for granted that Eisenhower will be renominated. Whether he can be elected in 1956, even with his personal popularity, is someting else again—for the tide of protest is running heavily against the Republican party today, as the recent congressional election so clearly showed.

Another myth is collapsing. The other day an ambiguous phrase by the junior senator from Wisconsin, saying he had every intention of supporting the Republican party "at the present time," set off a lot of speculation. But it turns out that nobody on Capiol Hill has come out since in favor of a third party—and nobody will.

The simple truth is that a bipartisan coalition working inside of both major parties is a far more effective way of influencing an election result. Sometimes it is an organized movement and somefeeling of a faction of Democrats paralleling a faction of Republicans but with no apparent connection one with the other.

The 1956 campaign may show such a dissent inside the Democratic and the Republican parties. Independents could move from one party to the other depending on whether one candidate or the other approximates more closely the viewpoint of the dissenters on some concrete issues.

If, for instance, the Democratic nominee should be against a peace-at-any-price policy and the Republican nominee should be actually following that doctrine, though not of course admitting it, the voters will move from one party to the other depending on their reaction on this issue.

If both candidates have the same viewpoint, a large number of independents will stay away from the polls altogether. That's what happened in the last congressional election.

CHARLES HOWELL, Democrat, would have been United States senator-elect today from New Jersey had not 36,000 voters—most of them Democratic—been recorded for an indepenlent candidate pledged to the pro-McCarthy side of the recent controversy. In New York State, Sen. Ives is known to have told friends that he owes his defeat for governor to the defection of those many thousands of Republicans who deliberately stayed away from the polls because he refused to side with the Wisconsin senator on the "censure" issue.

A national issue on peaceful coexistence and alleged concessions to the Reds by the administration is in the making. Also the Bricker amendment is by no means dead as a political issue. It is being mentioned as one of the things that contributed to the defeat of Sen. Ferguson in Michigan last month. His single vote in the Senate against the George substitute for the Bricker mendmnt is pointed to as having been decisive.

While no third-party movement is in the offing, the independence of the voters shows more, instead of less, evidence of asserting itself. Perhaps the most remarkable example of this was what happened in South Carolina where former Gov. Strom Thurmond was elected senator over Edgar Brown by a write in of 142,000 to 83,000 for the printed ballot of candidate Brown.

THE PRINCIPAL issue was the highhanded attitude of the Democratic state committee—of which Brown himself was chairman—in refusing to hold a primary election. On the very next day after this was announced, Tom Waring, editor of the "Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier," in a front-page editorial called for a write-in vote by the people of the state.

Other newspapers followed his initiative. It was a journalistic service of courage and enterprise. In less than 60 days the people did an unheard-of-thing—they actually wrote in the name of a candidate whose name or party had not been printed on the ballot, and he won.

It shows the strength an independent movement can attain when there's an issue on which the people are aroused.

Active Members

By TRUMAN TWILL

The Methodist Church says it is going to the mat with a problem that has licked generations of solution hunters — what to do with inactive members.

The church's leadership is advising Methodist congregations to separate the living from the dead. Church rolls will be pruned. Dead wood will be cut off and deprived of further identity with the living organization.

If the Methodists can do it, other groups will try the same thing. It may even come to be recognized in time that inactive membership is a dead weight that active members cannot be expected to carry on their backs.

This is a nation of lackadaisical joiners who like to steal free rides on the energy of the doers. Although there is no way to find out in advance who will be the doers, there is no mystery about which ones turned out to be duds. The membership lists of organizations are clogged with them.

They have lost whatever slight interest they felt when they joined. Thy nevershow up to lo anything voluntarily, and if thy are dragooned into performing a service they drag their feet.

Millions of them collect memberships the way a coin collector accumulates coins — for display only. Thy want to belong but they do not want to work. They want credit without payment.

They want to be sure their obituary notices will be embroidered with patterns of association made attractive by the loyalty and devotion of others. They try to attain by payment of dues a bargain-counter prestige among their fllow men — and sometimes they aren't ven willing to pay the dues.

Morover, there are organizations that collect members on the same basis. They deserve what they get. It isn't much.

Active members should have some means of identification other than the callouses on their hands. They should be spottable on sight as workers, to distinguish them from the drones who never buzz until it's time to pass the honey.

It probably can't be done that way in a society of chronic joiners and signer-uppers. But there could be established in many organizations a point of no return at which members would be ordered to fish or get out of the boat.

If that is what the Methodists are getting ready to do, much credit to them. By the power of example they could help to bring more order out of chaos on more membership rolls than has been brought since Noah stood at the door of the ark and checked off the active members two by two while the water was rising.

Thoughts For Today

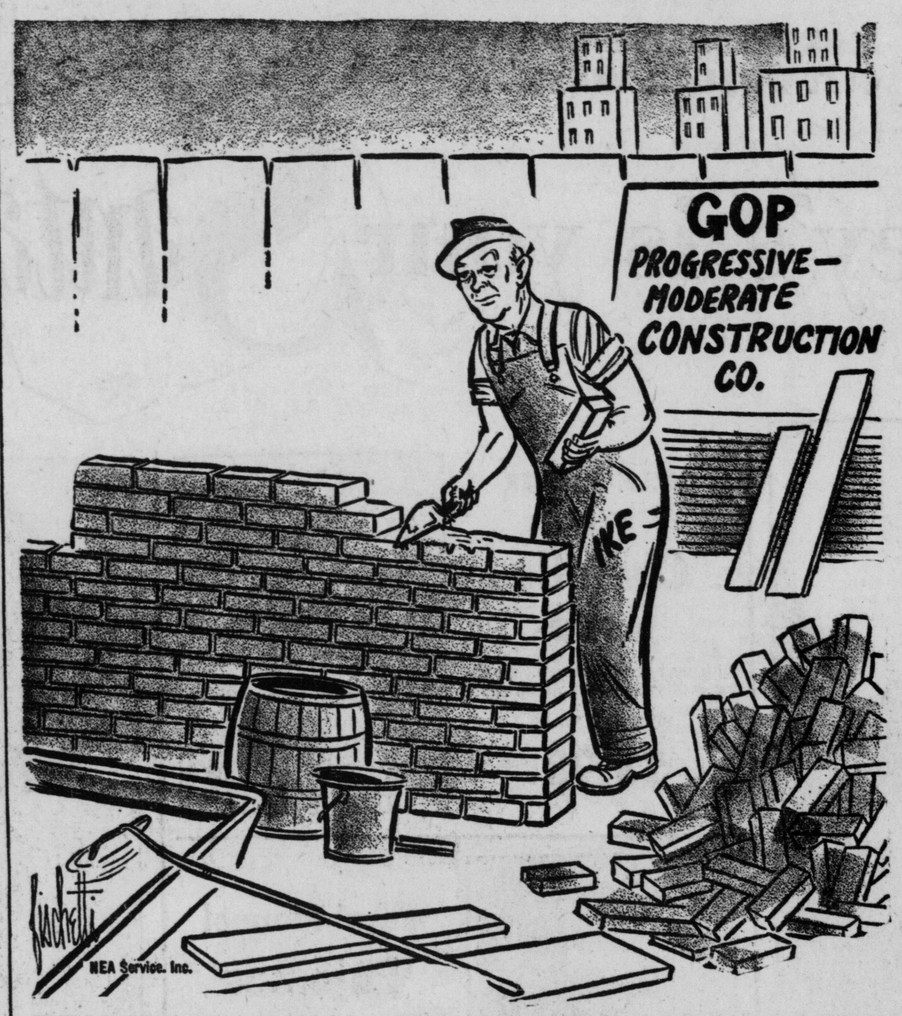
The Quiet One



From 1933 To 1954

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

In the current discussions concerning subversion, conformity, investigations and moderation, the argument always comes up that what is not permissible in the 1950's was permissible and even popular in the 1930's. It is not quite understandable, for instance, that espionage was a desirable occupation in the 1930's because we had a depression, but that espionage is not permissible in the 1950's because there is a "cold war." Will espionage become a propriety once we enter upon a career of "Peaceful Coexistence"?

Sokolsky

Earl Browder wrote a letter to "The New York Times" some time ago in which he said of the 1930's:

"In order to understand that period one must realize that its climate of public opinon was utterly different from that of the present. There was very little to put Dr. Oppenheimer and his kind on notice that there was anything particularly reprehensible about association with Communists, whatever one might think about their doctrines. In fact, a rather free association with Communists in public life was taken for granted by the dominant trend of public opinion . . ."

THE REFERENCE to Dr. Oppenheimer is incidental to the point that many persons did feel that membership in the Communist party was not offensive to those in power, that it might even lead to advantages in many walks of life. It was a period of intellectual gaiety when cultured persons were changing the world in every conversation.

The Communists added much to the stimulation of the young mind of those days and were welcomed for the novelty of their ideas. They had a very good time and the rich opened their doors to all sorts of young men and women whom they would have regarded as socially beneath them before the Stock Exchange crashed in 1929. Certainly the word, democracy, attained a new meaning in the Roosevelt regime.

Earl Browder must have liked those days. This is what he said of them:

"In those days Communists exerted a powerful and pervasive influence in the labor movement; they were invited into the American Federation of Labor and later into the Congress of Industrial Organizations. At election times their support was sought by candidates and factions in both major parties. They played a serious role, unchallenged, in the League of American Writers.

"Communists were asked to speak in universities, not despite, but because they were Communists. For example, I was twice an invited guest speaker at the Institute of Public Affairs of the University of Virginia, and during the 1930's spoke in at least thirty other universities."

THOSE WHO recall those good old days resent the current annoyance with their past pleasures. They resent the investigations and accusations and the sending of such very cultured young men as Alger Hiss and the late William Remington to prison. Unfortunately, some of the young men and women who launched themselves into an idealistic world of Marxian optimism, as to what can be done quickly and perfectly by revolutionary talk, went into service to a foreign country and became spies and servants of their Bolshevik masters.

Many regretted what they had done, but all sorts of things happened to them. Some are slaves to their pride; they dare not admit the error of their lives. Now in their middle years, they dislike the thought of making an entirely new world for themselves that might even mean separation from a wife or a brother or a very intimate friend.

Some of them can be made ridiculous because of personal habits, if ever they were exposed. Some have become confirmed in the correctness of their actions.

THERE IS a growing group of these people who have become convinced opponents of Communism but they dislike being anti-Communists.

They do not mind arguing against Marxism but they object to reciting their experiences, including references to their former friends in public. Thty resent, as it were, undressing in public.

They prefer to be accepted as opponents to Communism, without explanation. They are fighting hard for a general acceptance of their point of view.

So in the 1950's, all this comes into the open with many people taking sides. Each of these persons has friends and relatives who may even dislike Communists themselves but who find exceptions among those whom they know and like.

It is all very complicated psychologically but it creates many political difficulties and disturbs the peace of the nation.

Rebuff For Economy Advocates

By RAYMOND MOLEY

The program that will be offered to the new Democratic Congress by the President will certainly lack any items of exciting voter appeal.

What is worse, it will once more be a departure from the road to a balanced budget. If there is to be any excitement Congress will have to provide it.

There will be a considerable highway program. This will take a lot of federal money, but it will seek also to encourage local and state spending. The President put the preparation of this in the custody of Gen. lay, a former Army engineer. And like all Army engineers, he is more interested in spending than in saving public money.

Congress can very properly shelve this proposition until the Commission on Intergovernmental Relations has reported. For that group, once headed by Clarence Manion, is supposed to implement the pledge of Candidate Eisenhower in 1952 that tax sources should be returned to the states in order that federal grants might be scaled down.

THERE WILL BE administration endorsement of that monstrous pork-barrel known as the Upper Colorado Storage project. In fact, the President has already given his approval in writing to a Western senator. That undercuts another commission, the Hoover group, which will have something to say about the excessive cost of reclamation in arid states.

The appointment of former Budget Director Dodge as chairman of a new Council of Foreign Economic Policy is no encouragement that foreign spending on economic matters will be reduced. As budget director, Dodge was no champion goal - tender for the Treasury. The fact is that the administration will recommend more additions to the program for Asia than it will save in Europe. Every year promises are made that the program has a terminal date, but the following year's announcement puts the day farther into the future.

THE EXTENSION of the reciprocal trade program was recommended. That is substantially routine and has been so since early in the Roosevelt regime. There is always some debate and then a decision in Congress to give it another term.

The Democrats, especially the left wing of the party in Congress, will make what they can of the public-power issue. They scream about "give-away," but what they mean is that they want to give away more money for public-power projects. That means spending more money. To scrap Dixon-Yates, if that can be done by Congress, will add more than 10 million dollars. If it is possible to revive the federal dam for Hell's Canyon and to stop the Idaho Power Company's plan, that will mean more than 50 million dollars. And so it will go.

IT HAS SEEMED for a long time that the meat on the public-power issue has all been eaten away. But so long as there are no other good issues, the Morses and the Murrays, and Gores, and the Kefauvers will boil the bones.

Meanwhile, the taxpayer will be told to go back to the end of the queue and wait his turn for federal favor. He is likely to be standing in line for some years.

If all of us got all the things we want in this world, then we'd kick about not having any place to put them.

Santa And The U. N.

The little boy visiting the United Nations, asked the U.S.S.R. delegate to tell him all about Santa Claus. It proved a big mistake. "Santa Claus! Bah! An invention of warmongering enemies of the people!" declared the Soviet leader. "A tool of the United States ruling circles. A device to further the foul conspiracies of the so-called democratic countries."

"But I've seen him," said the little boy, quite stunned. "He is a jolly old man with a white beard and the merriest dimples in all the world."

"This jollity is a pretense," replied the U.S.S.R. delegate. "The world knows that whiskers are used by certain countries as a disguise for criminal conspirators and spies. All fair-minded people are aware of the use of merry dimples to hide the true purposes of those intent on lunging the world into war."

"Santa Claus lives at the North Pole," insisted the child.

"The Anglo-American bloc would, of course, claim a home for this suspicious character at the North Pole but the U.S.S.R. has made extensive surveys of that region and knows better," replied the Russian delegate.

"He has a sleigh and eight reindeer," the child said.

"This low attempt to foist a sleigh and reindeer on the world deceives nobody," the Russian thundered. "Everybody is aware of this deliberate hoax under cover of which the plotters of the United States and its U.S. supporters operate."

"Now, Dasher- Now, Dancer! Now, Prancer and Vixen," the child chortled.

"Mere code names," snapped the Moscow man. "All people truly interested in peace know Dasher, Dancer, Prancer and Vixen are words used to convey stolen information."

"On, Comet! On, Cupid! On, Donner and Blitzen," the child continued, eyes glowing.

"Donner and Blitzen are Wall Street propagandists, as the U.S.S.R. has shown again and again," declared the U.S.S.R. speaker.

"To the top of the porch! To the top of the wall!" the little boy went on, lost in his own ecstasy.

"Clearly a military order in a deceptive form," said the Russian. "I call attention to the rest of the message which says, 'Now, dash away, dash away, dash away all.' This exposes the whole operation as a dastardly raid, a secret hit-and-run operation."

The little boy was pretty fed up with the U.S.S.R. by this time. He kept on reciting the famous poem and concluded with " 'He sprang to his sleigh, to his team, gave a whistle, and away they all flew like the down of a thistle. But I heard him exclaim, as he drove out of sight 'Happy Christmas to all and to all a good night!' "

"Whistles! Thistles! All spy stuff," barked the U.S.S.R. delegate. "And we have documents to prove that the 'Good night' was meant to convey the false and criminal idea that this man was leaving and terminating this trip in the dark of night. Nyet! Nyet! Camouflage! Deceit! WE HAVE A CONFESSION THAT HE MEANT TO RETURN!"

(The little boy asked for a vote of confidence in Santa so that children might be cheered and sustained in their belief in a beautiful legend. He got it, India abstaining.)

National Drive Safely Day is over and no more people were injured than expected, although the bent fender totals hit a new high. We stayed indoors all through the day, knowing very well that it would be pretty unsafe on the highways with any larger number of drivers trying to change their habits, if only for a few hours. The number of cars driven into telegraph poles because of drivers swooning when they encountered other drivers smilingly giving them the right of way must have been pretty high. But the most frightened victim of National Drive Safely Day, we think, was a pedestrian of our acquaintance, who, in crossing a street, saw an auto slow down and give him an even break ... He hasn't recovered his senses yet.

Weygandt, Lausche To Air Resignation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt said today he wants to talk again with Gov. Frank J. Lausche before making a final decision on his resignation from the Ohio Supreme Court bench.

Weygandt announced his resignation Dec. 31 but has promised Gov. Lausche to reconsider. He had submitted his resignation for "compelling reasons" which, he said, included inadequate salary and lack of a judicial retirement system.

He said he had rejected "repeated suggestions" that he resign and allow the governor to reapp o i n t him so he would become eligible for a higher salary immediately. The legislature, in 1951, increased salary of the chief justice from $12,600 to $16,500, but Weygandt is not eligible for the increase until the start of the new term in 1957.

Women Voters Urge 11-Man School Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio League of Women Voters today urged the Ohio School Survey Committee to recommend an 11-member state board of education.

Mrs. Donald Francis of Cleveland Heights presented the proposal at the opening of public hearings by the committee considering legislation for action by the next General Assembly.

Voters last year approved a change in the State Constitution to provide for a state board of education with power to select an Ohio education director. The change left it up to the legislature to determine composition of the board and the method of selecting members.

The survey committee, at work throughout the year, has tentatively indicated it favors a nine-member state board elected in Ohio's nine appellate court districts.

Mrs. Francis proposed gubernatorial appointment of nine mem bers from those districts and two others from the state at large. She said appointees should carry recommendations of special groups to limit the governor's selection.

State Librarian Walter Brahm questioned a tentative recommendation that the state education board assume the duties of the present state library board.

The present state library board by law consists of five members. Four are appointed by the governor for eight-year terms and the state education director serves as chairman.

Mullins Booster Club Enjoys Dinner Program At Golf Club

Fast-moving entertainment and a gift-laden Santa Claus featured the fun-packed evening for Mullins Booster Club members and their guests Tuesday at the annual Christmas dinner party in the Salem Golf Clubhouse.

The Mullins Manufacturing Corp. was host for the holiday affair staged in the clubhouse ballroom where a huge lighted Christmas tree predominated the setting. The 100 women were seated at white linen-coverd tabls, on which were placed small feather Christmas trees in white, red or green.

Marking each place were "tree" programs in red, green and simulated candle favors in the same colors. Red tapers lighted each table.

The feather trees were won at the close of the dinner by Margaret Detimore, Phyllis Lentz, Joan Spack, Pat Citino, Gertrude Thomas, Mickey Lyons, Hazel Montgomery, Peg Beede, Joan Whitten, Thelma Gwynne, Helen Slutz, Pearl Bodehorfer and Betty Allison.

Welcoming the members, guests and newcomers to the club was the president, Mary Ratscher. Newcomers are Dorothy Clark, Helen Slutz, Nancy Sullivan, Marjorie Edwards, and Janet Girard. Greetings were extended to a former Booster, Mrs. Edna Trotter.

Farewell was said to Pearl Bodendorfer, Frances Tuel, Marty Finch, Nancy Zeck, Kathy Kampfer and Thelma Gwynne.

Santa Claus, in the person of Fred Puttkamer, distributed gifts to everyone.

George Duffy, pianist, with Woody Chapeck on the trumpet and Armie Armstrong on the drums played the dinner music, accompanied the audience for the carolsing and played accompanying music for the entertainers presented by Frank Scott.

Prior to th show Mr. Scott was caller for progressive bingo during which prizes were won by Mary Ratscher, Joyce Cosgrove, Ruth Mancuso, Carolyn Gottschall, Virginia Robbins and Phyllis Lentz.

Hamish Menzies, recording artist, and the self-styled "rogue with a brogue" sang. A hand-to-hand balancing act was presented by Franklin and Astrid. Impressionists Ralph and Mary Carnavel, coedy team and dancers, were the concluding feature.

The 1954 officers who were hostesses for the gala party are Miss Ratscher, Elinore Ryan, vice president; Helen Dicu, secretary; Charlotte McMullen, treasurer and Shirley Grindle, assistant treasurer.

Miss Ratscher announced that the members will have a noon meeting next Wednesday to make final plans for the holidays. The next regular party will be Jan. 20.

Mrs. Gray Is Hostess To Mothers Club

The E. State home of Mrs. Walter Gray was beautifully decorated in keeping with the holiday season when members of the Progressive Mothers Club were her guests Tuesday night.

Games of cootie provided entertainment, with prizes going to Mrs. Ashead and Mrs. Carroll Greene.

A red cloth covered the buffet table decorated with candles and pine, and the members were seated at smaller tables covered with red candles arrayed with pine and colored ornaments. Favors at each place were Christmas handkerchiefs in a ring of ornamented tinsel. Mrs. Ashead poured.

On the committee were Mrs. Francis Horning, Mrs. Ray Dean, Mrs. Clyde Miller and Mrs. Edling. The next party, Jan. 4, will take place in the home of Mrs. Richard Wilson of W. 10th St.

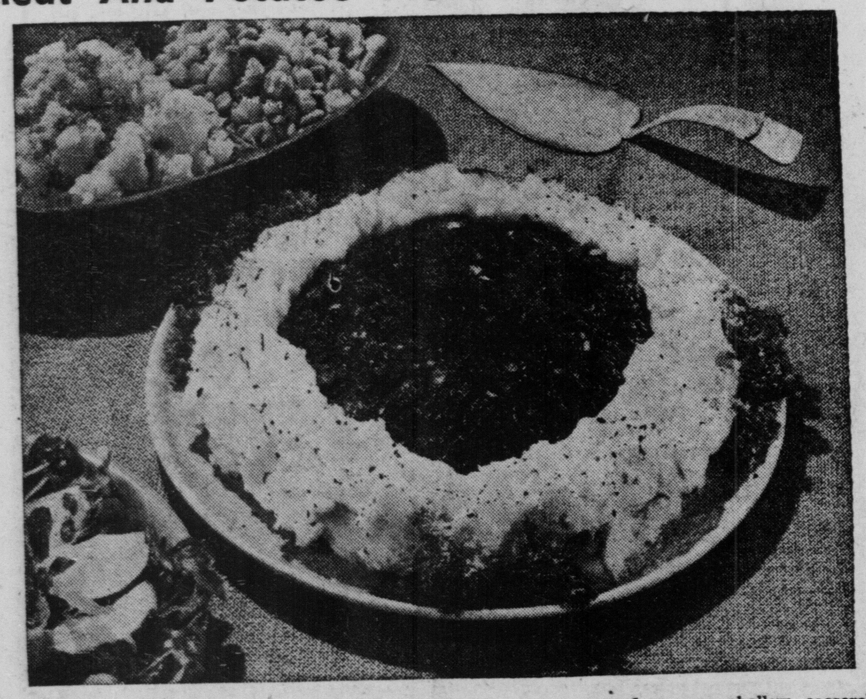
Meat And Potatoe Pie Is Economical



It is sometimes hard to plan economical dishes for men who like meat and potato meals.

In the recipe given below, these two foods are artfully combined into just such a meal. It requires about one hour to prepare and bake. The crust is made of whipped potatoes and the filling of a tasty beef mixture.

1 egg, slightly beaten
1 cup milk
whole wheat flakes
1 pound ground beef
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
⅛ teaspoon thyme
⅛ teasoon sage
½ cup minced onions
3 cups hot, seasoned whipped potatoes

Combine egg, milk and flakes. Add meat, seasonings and onions mix well. Spread evenly in 8-inch round pan or shallow casserole. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) or place under broiler until meat is done and browned on top.

Whip potatoes until light; arrange in border around outer edge of pan. Bake in very hot oven (450 degrees) or place under the broiler until potatoes are thoroughly heated and lightly browned. Cut in wedge shaped pieces to serve. Makes 6 servings.

Annual Yule Party Is Held By Welcome Wagon Newcomers

The modernistic color scheme of shocking pink and silver added a distinctive note to the annual Yuletide dinner party for members and guests of the Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club Tuesday evening in the Elks Club.

In the officer election held during the evening, Mrs. Daniel Dunbar was named to succeed Mrs. Russell Merrifield as president. Mrs. Bruno Stanga will serve as vice president; Mrs. Warren McCluskey, secretary; and Mrs. Jack Coffey, treasurer.

An all-white Christmas tree, tied with flueorescent-colored ribbon, was trimmed with earrings made of tiny colored balls. The earrings were favors for the women.

The table on which the gifts for the exchange were piled was lighted by white candles and held a tiered arrangement of milk glass filled with festive ornaments.

A huge snowball candle and "Santa" predominated the table where the gifts were placed for the club's Christmas family, and the U-shaped table where the women were seated was in a blue, silver and pink motif.

Mrs. Powell Schmauch, who aided in the decorating, gave the invocation. Mrs. Merrifield introduced the members of her board for 1954.

Newcomers to Salem greeted by the assemblage were Mrs. Frank Ream of Cleveland and Mrs. Robert Alexander of Talmadge. Two guests were Mrs. H. O. Smith and Mrs. Marie Harper.

Mrs. Wesley Becker, Mrs. James Downing and Mrs. William Barry were the only charter members present. Mrs. Becker, toast mistress recited an original poem.

During the program arranged by Mrs. Harley Thayer, Mrs. Roy V. Meyer, presented a piano medley of interpretive Christmas songs. Mrs. Howard Beilhart told the story of "The Littlest Bell," and Mrs. Kenneth Lodge entertained with a reading. "Home for Christmas," was the title of the story told by Mrs. George Conrad.

For her work throughout the year Mrs. Merrifield received a gift from the club.

Mrs. Schmauch presented corsages to Mrs. Merrifield and each of the other retiring officers, Mrs. Lodge, Mrs. Willis Seymour, Mrs. Robert Osmundsen and Mrs. Vesta King, Welcome Wagon hostess. Mrs. Leslie Ellis was awarded a prize.

The new officers will be installed at the next meeting Jan. 20.

The ceremony was witnessed by members of the family and friends. New gold wedding bands were sent to the couple by their daughter, Margaret, and her husband, Melvin Avig, of Baltimore, Md.

During the afternoon and evening open house was observed and 125 friends from Salem, Alliance, Columbiana, Leetonia, Washingtonville and Canfield called to extend their congratulations.

The honorees received many gifts, flowers and cards. Among the gifts was a purse of money presented by the congregation of the Washingtonville Lutheran Church, of which the couple have been long-time members.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gwynne Jr. entertained the immediate family at dinner in their home in Washingtonville The dining table, laid with an ivory cloth, was centered with a golden cornucopia filled with harvest moon carnations.

The dinner guests included the couple's son, William Gwynne of Leetonia; a daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Sunderman of Washingtonville; and three grandchildren, Julian Sunderman, Thelma and Dave Gwynne. Jerry Ball of Salem also was a guest.

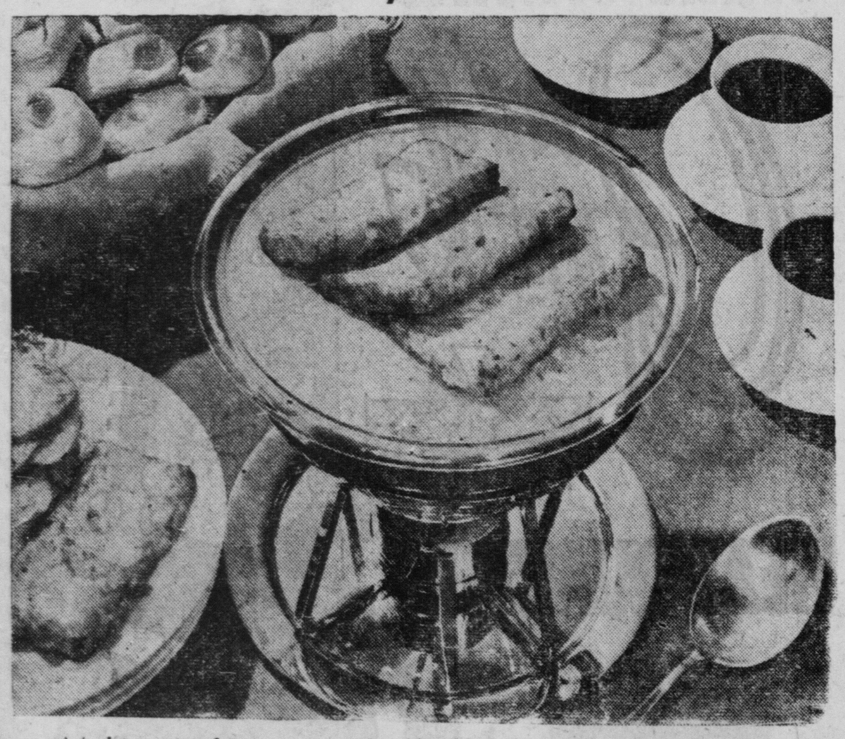
Fish Fillets Are Easily Made



It's smart to have some frozen sea food on hand for those times when you want to prepare a meal in a hurry.

This recipe calls for lightly breaded fish fillets. They turn a golden brown making a very attractive dish.

For an easy to make fish fondue

1 12- oz. pkg. frozen breaded ocean or white fish fillets
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can condensed cream of tomato soup, undiluted
¼ teaspoon aromatic Angostura bitters
½ cup milk
½ teaspoon dry mustard
1 cup grated process American cheese
1 tablespoon minced onion

Saute fish fillets in butter in chafing dish or skillet, turning to brown on both sides (about 2 minutes on each). Combine remaining ingredients in bowl; bled well. Pour over fillets in chafing dish or skillet and cook, covered, over low heat, until mixture is bubbling, hot and cheese melted — about 10 min. Makes 4 servings.

Mindszenty Reported Free

Story Reds Released Cardinal Unconfirmed

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — The Austrian Catholic news service Kathpress quotes informed circles in Budapest as reporting Josef Cardinal Mindszenty has been released from prison in Hungary. But the agency says there is no confirmation of the report.

The Vatican also said it had no confirmation of similar reports.

Gathpress said it received information from well-informed sources in Budapest that the cardinal had been freed one week ago and had gone to his diocese.

Midszenty was sentenced to life imprisonment by a Red court Feb. 8, 1949. The court convicted him of treason, seeking to overthrow the Communist government in favor of the Hapsburg monarchy and illegal trading in dollars from the United States and the Vatican.

The trial and sentence brought a crescendo of indignation from the Western world. President Truman termed the action "infamous."

The Catholic Press Agency reported on Oct. 8 that Mindszenty's jailers were permitting him to see his aged mother once a month and that his health was poor. The news service said then that the prelate had been confined to a villa near Nogradveroce since May and was taken each month to a point near Budapest to see his mother.

At the same time a report circulated in Western Europe that the Hungarian Information Ministry had announced Mindszenty would be released, but the Hugarian legation in Vienna said it knew nothing about this.

Arrested In 1948

The Communists arrested Mindszenty on Dec. 26, 1948, after a long running fight with the cardinal who as an archbishop had been imprisoned by the Nazis for his defiance.

From the time he was raised to the rank of cardinal in February, 1946, Mindszenty had fought the Russian occupation forces and the Hungarian Communists who gradually took over the country.The battle reached a high pitch when the Communists announced plans to nationalize Roman Catholic schools. When the law was instituted, the cardinal ordered church bells throughout Hungary to toll.

In subsequent statements Mindszenty warned against Communist propaganda and urged Catholics to boycott the government.

The Communists meanwhile whipped up demonstrations against him. But though he knew his arrest was imminent, he refused to flee Hungary. On his arrest he was forced to doff the robes and cap symbolic of his office.

For his trial he wore the unadorned black cassock of a simple priest.

Tried By "Peoples' Court"

He was tried by a "people's court", of one professional jurist and four workers. He and his six co-defendants pleaded partly guilty and Mindszenty recanted in open court a letter he wrote in November 1948 saying if he ever admitted guilt to government charges it would be "because of the weakness of the flesh."

The series of confessions and recantations in court set off charges abroad that the cardinal had been tortured or drugged. One of the most prominent spokesmen making such charges was Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York. Britain's then foreign secretary, Ernest Bevin, in an obvious reference to the case, said "the uniform behavior of all prisoners at all political trials behind the Iron Curtain is incomprehensible by normal standards of human conduct."

Following the sentence of the cardinal, the Roman Catholic church decreed its heaviest punishment—excommunication—for all those involved in the arrest, trial and sentencing. That decree denied them the sacraments of the church and the society of Catholics.

Mindszenty's codefendants were also convicted. Their sentences ranged from three years to life.

Sheppard

openly—word is bound to get back to the wife

"And what is the answer to that? There is only one answer. Sam Sheppard did not care whether word got back to her or not. He just didn't care. If she finds out, let her.

"If he wanted to keep it a secret, he certainly could have. This divorce talk that had been building up since 1950, here in March of 1954, he just didn't care."

Near the end of his summation, the attorney said:

"Here we have certainly one of the most brutal and vicious murders in the history of crime. We have here a murder that was committed, have no doubt, by this defendant."

Through Parrino's two-hour argument, Sheppard sat with his chair turned so that he was facing the jury. His face was a blank. He seldom even moved.

Petersilge, who followed, reminded the jury that Shppard is innocent until proved guilty, "beyond all reasonable doubt," and that the burden of proof is on the prosecution.

But all Parrino did, he said, was to pose a series of questions about the crime and ask the jury to determine what they meant.

"It's been two nours of suspicion," he said, "suspicion of Sam Sheppard plus a recital of his affair with Susan Hayes, plus the fact that he was in the house when the crime occurred."

On the question of motive, Petersilge said:

"The state hasn't shown any motive for this crime. After all, people don't go out and kill one another without some reason. And the state doesn't know why Marilyn Sheppard was killed."

Petersilge ridiculed the state's convention that Sheppard wanted a divorce.

"If he wanted a divorce," he said, "that doesn't mean he wanted to kill his wife. The easiest thing in the world is to get a divorce. If divorce was discussed, it seems to me that it was not a motive to kill . . . but I don't think Sam ever seriously intended divorce.'

The attorney told the jurors Miss Hayes herself testified Sheppard told her he loved his wife. And he said:

"Sue Hayes as a reason for Sam killing his wife is just no good, it isn't adequate. Why would he have killed Marilyn for Sue Hayes?"

College Physician Thinks World To End On Dec. 21

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Dr. Charles A. Laughead, who college officials say believes the world will end Dec. 21, yesterday resigned his position as a staff member of the Michigan State College hospital.

The State Board of Agriculture, the college governing board, accepted his resignation routinely but asked for an explanation.

MSC President Dr. John A. Hannah reported to the board that Dr. Laughead, a staff physician since 1948, was resigning because of his belief the world will end Dec. 21.

"I first heard about this business when a group of students came to me," Dr. Hannah said. "They told me Dr. Laughead had been holding meetings at his home and preaching the beliefs of some peculiar religious sect."

Dr. Hannah said Dean of Students Tom King and Dr. C. J. Menzies, head of the college hospital, investigated and that Dr. Laughead admitted and talked freely about his beliefs.

Dr. Hannah said the group believes that the world will end Dec. 21 and that flying saucers from Venus or Mars—the MSC president wasn't sure which—would rescue some select survivors from mountain tops.

"We understand he is disposing of his belongings and preparing to move to some mountain top to await the rescue."

Sale Of Farm Surpluses To Russia Studied

NEW YORK (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson says the administration is considering direct trade in agricultural surpluses with Russia and its satellites.

At a news conference yesterday, Benson said study would be given both to direct sales of such commodities to Iron Curtain countries and to trade with "third party" nations which might sell to the Soviet Union.

"My feeling is that we should be willing to trade with Iron Curtain countries so long as the trade is in our favor, whether it be butter or anything else," Benson said, adding:

"We are considering some sales to countries which may in turn sell to Iron Curtain countries."

In any event, the agriculture secretary said, it was difficult to "police" sales of American goods to Russia.

Last January a U.S. broker was denied a license to buy surplus American butter for export to Russia.

In line with Benson's statement, however, there were reports that the administration would reassess the situation at meetings to be held within a few days.

Benson also said he was giving "serious consideration" to revising the entire farm parity formula.

He said revision would include "re-weighting" of some of the factors involved in the formula.

Asked if the farmers would get a "better shake" out of a contemplated formula revision, Benson replied:

"They may, but the end objective is to make the formula up-to-date and as accurate as possible as a measuring rod."

Benson and the Republican administration instituted a "flexible" support policy in place of the previous administration's "rigid' supports.

Parity is a standard set on farm prices by the government designed to keep the farmer's income in balance with the changing costs of things he buys.

Under "rigid" support, farm income was pegged by the government at 90 per cent of parity. Now some products get less than 90 per cent—depending on current conditions affecting a particular product.

Engineer Cites Cost Of Lisbon Swim Pool

LISBON — A Lansing, Mich., engineer told the Citizens' Swimming Pool Committee Wednesday night his firm, the Wesley Bentz Co., could build a 40-by-75 foot concrete pool with bath house for $45,000.

Douglas E. Mechlin recommended the committee consider an oval or egg-shaped pool because "it is 10 per cent cheaper to build, has 10 per cent more bathing area and is stronger than other models."

Mechlin today is examining three tentative sites and will report to Adam Rudibaugh, co-chairman, on his recommendations.

Floyd Dunk, engineer for the Tower Iron Works of Cleveland, will appear before the committee Jan. 5.

Voters passed a $37,500 bond issue in November for construction of the pool. This money will be augmented by $16,000 left the village by the will of Miss Sadie Van-Fossan, former high school principal.

Conviction Of Newsmen For Courtroom Photo Is Upheld

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court has upheld contempt convictions of three Cleveland Press staff members in connection with a photograph taken of former Probate Judge Nelson Brewer during his arraignment in Cleveland on an embezzlement charge.

The three were City Editor Louis Clifford who authorized the picture Thomas and reporter Sam Giaimo. Thomas and rporter am Giaimo.

The court, in the decision yesterday, said a court in session is under "complete control" of the judge whose directions must be obeyed. The Press published the picture despite a court order against it.

"Deliberate disobedience of such orders constitute a contempt of court punishable under the statutes of this state," the court said.

The decision was unanimous among six judges. Jusice John H. Lamneck did not vote on the decision but heard arguments.

An appellate court had sentenced Clifford to an hour in sheriff's custody and fined $500. Giaimo was fined $100 and Thomas received a suspended sentence.

In another decision, the Supreme Court turned down the request of Charles P. Masterson of Cleveland for an injunction halting state-approved pari - mutuel betting on horse races.

Masterson named the state racing commission, state officials and operators of two tracks in the Cleveland area in his action.

His suit asserted pari-mutuel betting was in violation of the State Constitution, which says: "Lotteries and the sale of lottery tickets, for any purpose, whatsoever, shall forever be prohibited in this state."

The high court ruled Masterson lacked legal capacity to sue the racing commission.

A state liquor department ban on the coin-operated prophylactic vending machines in taverns was upheld by the court, which said no constitutional question was involved.

Walter Howell, a night club operator in McDonald, Trumbull County, appealed from Franklin County courts' refusal to halt the ban.

The high court agreed to review Licking County court rulings which held a car owner responsible for injuries in accidents involving the car while driven by a repairman tc a garage.

Iva C. Councell was awarded $3,280 for injuries sustained in the collision of her husband's car with one owned by Hugh Douglas.

The Douglas car was driven by K Cooksey who was returning to his service station to service the car after taking Douglas home.

Millionaire's 3 Sons, Couple Killed In Fire

NORTHPORT, Maine (AP)—A flash fire roared through a fashionable home in this Penobscot Bay community yesterday, killing three young sons of medicine millionaire Edwin Grove III and a middle-aged couple caring for them.

The fire generated such intense heat that it was seven hours before firemen could enter and recover the bodies of Jeffrey, 4, David, 6, and Christopher Grove, 8; Harvey S Bean, 58, and his wife Madeline, 57, of Vienna, Maine.

The boys' parents were in Boston, where Mrs. Grove is expecting the birth of a fourth child soon.

Grove, who formerly lived in Aspen, Colo., is a director of the Grov (pharmaceutical) Laboratories in St.Louis.

Firemen were unable to determine the cause of the blaze, which destroyed the two-story house.

Charges were not filed immediatly.

Official Held On Contempt Charge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Norton Anthony Russell, 36, an official of a Yellow Springs, Ohio, manufacturing firm, was indicted today on 16 counts of contempt of congress.

The indictment by a federal grand jury here grew out of Russell's appearance before the House Un-American Activities Committee Nov. 17. Atty. Gen. Brownell in announcing the indictment said Russell refused to aswer committee questions about alleged activities of the Young Communist League and the Communist Party

He based his refusal on the First (free speech and press) Amendment and disavowed the privilege provided under the Fifth Amendment against self-incrimination.

Brownell said other witnesses testified Russell joined the Young Communist League while attending Antioch College in Yellow Springs and that he later entered the Communist Partly. Russell now is chief engineer for a Yellow Springs manufacturing firm.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

HOLLYWOOD

Of course it is right here in the movie colony that you find the world's most unusual union contract.

Victor Riesel

The contract covers movie people you've seen a thousand times — but probably have never heard speak a line. You've seen them as milling throngs at race track shots, as elephant riders, polo players, camel leaders, midgets, high divers or just crowds on a street. They're the anonymous members of the AFL Screen Extras Guild—the Indians who die in droves, the enemy's soldiers, the scores whose faces you never notice because you're dazzled by the stars. But without whom there would be no movie industry.

No union has the job shadings of the screen extras. There are 45 categories, including, for example, th man whose task it is to ride a camel or an elephant before the cameras. John Lewis might take a look at these wage scales.

THE ELEPHANT or camel rider, under the contract which runs to Jan. 2, 1958, gets $52.50 a day or $262.50 a week. If he just leads the camel or elephant, the scale goes down to $36.75 a day or $183.75 a week.

That's more than some of your college sport heroes who wander off the nation's campuses to Hollywood get for a day's work. The extra on the water polo teams winds up with -39.38 a day. The extra who actually plays in a regular polo game takes $52.50 daily. But if he just mounts a polo pony and poses stick in hand, the pay goes down to $26.25 per diem.

The football hero who gets into a movie game — and actually plays before the camera — gets $31.50 daily, as does the basketball and baseball player. Just what makes the polo player tonier and more expensive I don't know. The bowler, by the way, is low man on t sports rung — he gets $19.43 a day.

You race track sports, especially you trotting experts, ought to know you can make more money as a driver in a movie than betting on a real race. That is, if you're "driving spirited horse in actual race" before the cameras. That calls for $52.50 a day or $262.50 a week. If you just trot out a "spirited" horse, the pay slides to $36.75 daily. And if the camera lens is fixed on the jockey on a "spirited" horse held by a groom, the pay is $26.25 a day.

THERE'S A SECTION for swimmers. If you dive from a board between three and four feet high, you take away $26.25. If the board is higher than four feet, but less than six feet, your take is $34.13 daily. Six feet high and over, but less than 10 feet, brings you $42 daily or $210 a week, if you can get the work.

For straight horseback riding, your movie and television cowboys corral $26 daily; bare back, with no stirrups, $39.38 daily.

The stand - in, who seldom gets that big chance to replace the star, takes $98.25 a week. A midget gets $97.15 weekly. A general extra, the kind in virtually every picture, gets $97.50 wekly, or more likely $19.43 a day, for rarely does work run into a full week. Now if you look like a movie star, that brings you just a little more. The photographic double gets $26.25 a day or $131.25 weekly.

It isn't an easy way to wait for the big break, but it's easier than it has been. Hollywood is booming. Not so long ago it was difficult to get a sound stage on which to produce films — now that television production has just about doubled work out here.

THE EXTRAS' big sister union, the Screen Actors Guild, recently surveyed Hollywood's "glamorous" proletariat. It found a substantial increase in employment in both theatrical pictures and TV films—and TV has apparently saved the industry. It provided 46 per cent of the actors' employment in 1954.

This survey showed, however, that the average movie and TV actor isn't exactly rolling in lush Hollywood living. The actors as a group are in an income bracket of "up to $7,500 a year" or about $150 a week.

There are thousands of steel and auto workers and millions of construction trade craftsmen who take home much more. So if you're a member of Dave McDonald's or Walter Reuther's union, don't envy the followers of the screen actors' president Walter Pidgeon or the extras' convivial Dick Gordon — the debonair army officer in the background of Walter Pidgeon's party in "The Last Time I Saw Paris."

You can't eat glamor. This is a hard-working proletariat, this Hollywood crowd.

Salem Quakers Favored To Win Both Contests This Weekend

Cabas To Use Same Starters

Clippers Faced With Job Of Rebuilding

By LOWELL FLEISCHER

The Quakers are favored to win both of their basketball games this weekend. Friday night the locals will meet Columbiana Coach Rich Berryman's cagers and Saturday night will travel to the Woodrow Wilson gym in Youngstown.

The Clippers have won only one game so far this season, a 64-27 season opener against Jackson-Milton. Since then the Clippers have lost three contests in a row, to New Waterford, Champion and North Lima, all Class B schools.

Coach Berryman, who replaced Jimmy Hall this season, faces a rebuilding job at Columbiana after losing all the regulars from the Clipper squad of last spring which battled its way into the regional Class B finals.

Berryman previously had handled the Clipper cagers when Hall was in the service. He also coached the Columbiana football team this year

MISSING FROM last year's squad are such stars as John Case, who scored 260 points, Homer Gilchrist, 6-foot-five center, John Patchen, Hubert Keylor, and Ray Burkhardt.

The 1953-54 Clipper team won 15 and lost five. Copley defeated the Clippers in the regional finals at Youngstown 54-44.

Of the six Columbiana varsity stalwarts only one, Jim Warrick, a 5-10 guard, is a senior.

The other cagers, all juniors, are Randy Bailey, 5-11 forward; Gary Johnson, 5-10 forward; Brad Tingle, 6-foot center; John Bookwalter, 5-9 guard; and Larry Zimmerman, 5-10 guard.

The Woodrow Wilson Presidents have won one contest this season, that over Youngstown Ursuline 40-38 while dropping two. Struthers defeated the Presidents 56-36 and Brookfield downed them 64-56. Last year Salem edged Columbiana 51-50 and defeated Wilson 86-59.

Coach John Cabas announced that he will go with the same lineup he used last week — Rich Hunter, Harry Baird, and Ken Bosu out in front and Jerry Myers and Jack Alexander underneath the baskets.

TEN LOCALS scored last week as the Quakers trounced Youngstown Ursuline 105-58. Two seniors, Dale Middeker and Larry Stoffer, undoubtedly will see action in both contests this weekend. Juniors Bob Early and Matt Klein also will play.

Coach Karl Zellers' reserves have a good chance of winning games number two and three. The Jayvees have a winning streak of 19 games going now. The Quaker understudies went undefeated in 17 games last season; won the last tilt in 1952-53 and started this season out right with a 73-42 win over the Ursuline Jayvees.

Although not worried about the contests this week, Cabas said, "We're not going into the games with a big head and get knocked off; easy or difficult we're playing them one at a time."

From early season observations it seems as if Canton McKinley and Salem are the two strongest teams in the district. Struthers, however, also has a strong team which so far is undefeated.

Boosters To Meet

The Salem Booster Club will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Memorial Building, President John Pastier announced this morning.

Quaker Coach John Cabas will speak to the group about last week's game and discuss the two contests coming up over the weekend.

According to Pastier there is a possibility of a guest speaker for the meeting.

Injured Buckeyes To Be Ready for USC

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State backs Bobby Watkins and Hubert Bobo test their injured knees today in the last Buckeye practice before heading westward to meet Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

This is the team's fifth practice for the New Year's Day game and Coach Woody Hayes intends to drill on individual work.

Despite their injuries, Hayes said he expects Wakins and Bobo to be "ready to go by Jan. 1." Bobo was injured during a recent workout.

The coach said he expects injuries to two other players—center Ken Vorgo and end Dean Dugger—to be healed for the bowl game.

Vargo broke his arm in the Illinois game and Dugger dislocated his wrist in the Michigan contest.

The New York Giants never relinquished their National League lead after taking over first place June 15.

WHICH?—Elston Howard is catching and playing the outfield in the Puerto Rican Winter League. The most valuable player in the International League as a backstop, Howard next spring is expected to be the first Negro to wear the New York Yankees' flannels.

Bloomberg's Defeats Alessi's; Damascus, Jewelers Winners

Bloomberg's defeated Alessi's Market 56-46 and the Damascus Merchants downed the Steelworkers 39-33 in two Class B games played last night in the Memorial Building. Konnerth Jewelers beat Belseb 36-30 in the lone girls contests, and the Republicans won on a forfeit over the Democratic Club.

Jim Fife and John Todd paced the Bloomberg squad with 16 and 13 points respectively. Dick Saltsman had eight for Bloomberg's. Bill Panzott led Alessi's with 21 points, followed by Bill DelFavero with 11 markers.

Bloomberg's took an early lead and were never behind during the game.

The Steelworkers fought back in the last two quarters but weren't able to overcome the lead Damascus built up in the first two periods. Don Capel led the Damascus cagers with 15 points while Ham Girscht was high for the Steelworkers with 17 markers.

Darlene Smith led Konnerth's to its win over Belseb with 16 points.

Janet Stone paced the Belseb squad with 17 markers. Konnerth's went ahead by 12 points in the first frame, with Belseb taking over in the second and third frames. Konnerth's came to life again in the fourth to eke out the win.

Brown Relies On Old Friends As Assistants

By FRITZ HOWELL

CLEVELAND (AP)—Win or lose in the two upcoming games with the Detroit Lions—one non-important and the other all-important—the Cleveland Browns have proved you don't have to go far afield to gather a winning batch of football teaching talent.

The palm as the country's outstanding "family affair" coaching staff must go to Paul E. Brown and his aides.

Precision Paul—with a record no mentor has ever matched through the high school, college, service and professional fields—always has had the knack of surrounding himself with able assistants.

Many coaches reach over here for a line mentor, over there for an end tutor, somewhere else for other assistants.

But of the five men on the Browns' staff, four made their first bids for fame in Stark County, Ohio, three right in Massillon.

Brown, in a coaching career stretching from 1930 through last Sunday, has compiled a record of 233 victories, 38 losses and 9 ties. As a pro he's won 103, lost 17 and tied 3 in championship play.

Back in 1932, when he took over the Massillon High School reins at his alma mater after a two-year 16-1-1 record at Severn Prep, one of his ends was 135-pound Fritz Heisler. At center was Howard Brinker. On the Canton McKinley coaching staff, Massillon's most revered foe only six miles away, was Paul Bixler.

Heisler and Brinker both went on to Miami U., where Brown had played as a 130-pound quarterback. After graduation both joined Brown on the Massillon coaching staff.

In 1941, when Brown — with a 58-1-1 record in his last 6 years—took over the Ohio State job, Heisler went along. Brinker moved to Steubenville. Both went into the service, Heisler coming back to join Brown with the professionals, and Brinker going to Ohio U. with Carroll Widdoes, who earlier had followed Brown from Massillon to Ohio State. Widdoes took over as head coach of the Bucks when Paul entered the Navy and coached Great Lakes.

Bixler, after the Canton McKinley job, went along with Jimmy Aiken to Akron U., later became a Brown assistant at Ohio State, and became head coach there as Widdoes stepped down voluntarily.

And there you have the heart of the Browns coaching staff — those four old friends and playmates—Brown, Heisler, Brinker and Bixler.

But it doesn't end there. The fifth man is Ed Ulinski. Big Ed was an outstanding guard with the Browns through the four years—1946-49—when they swept through four straight All-American Conference seasons, winning 52 games, losing 4 and tying 3.

The former Marshall star took time out to become an assistant at Santa Clara and Purdue, after the 1949 season, but Paul called him back into the fold this year to complete the quintet which has coached the Cleveland club to its ninth straight division championship and its fifth straight in the National League—a feat no other pro club ever accomplished.

Brown also reached into his past for key players on the club. Tommy James, the great defensive halfback, and Horace Gillom, the League's top punter, played for Paul at Massillon. Lou Groza, the placekicker, and Dante Lavelli, the pass-snatching end, were at Ohio State when Brown was there.

Softball Assn. Elects Mancuso

Ralph Mancuso was elected president and Dave Brisken vice president of the Salem Softball Association at a meeting Tuesday night in the Memorial Building.

Other officers elected were Al Zocolo, treasurer; Ward Zeller, executive secretary and Jack Rance, recording secretary.

Trustees elected include Martin Debnar, three-year term; John Ehrhart, two-year; and James Primm Jr., one-year.

The association adopted a constitution for the operation of the softball program in Salem.

Giardello Indicted On Six Charges

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Tony Giardello, 24-year-old top-rated middleweight contender, has been indicted in connection with a service station brawl.

Giardello was named yesterday in six indictments, charging him with riot, inciting to riot, conspiracy, aggravated assault and battery, false pretense and larceny by trick. Three alleged companions — Victory Mariani, 24, Joseph Bondlies, 24, and Pasquale Concilio, 22, all of Philadelphia—were indicted on similar charges.

Appearing before the grand jury before the true bills were returned were Howard Short, 31-year-old gas station attendant, who accused the four of slugging him; Frank Gallo, 43, owner of the gas station where the fight took place, and police Capt. Brooks Lowe, who directed the investigation.

Olson TKOs Langlois In 11th, Retains Title

Bad Slash On Loser's Eye Stops Fight

By BOB MYERS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Screams of anguish echoed from one sector of the French boxing front today but the fact remains that America's Carl (Bobo) Olson still holds a firm grip on the world middleweight championship.

Olson, 26, always a cruel but seldom a killing puncher, stopped Pierre Langlois, 29, of France last night after 58 seconds of the 11th round.

Slated for 15 rounds, the nationally televised attraction was halted by Referee Ray Flores because of the unsightly condition of Pierre's left brow and eyelid.

A noisy crowd of 16,543 at th Cow Palace paid a gross of $107,660 which returned a net of $93,369, after taxes.

Olson first ripped open the brow in the best round of the fight, the sixth, and gave it an unmerciful lashing in the torrid 10th.

Langlois, his chance of overtaking the front-punching Olson fast disappearing, came out for the 11th with the cut temporarily mended by his handlers.

It took Olson but a few seconds to start the blood pouring again, and that's when Flores stepped in.

Dr. Robert Laddon, State Athletic Commission physician, examined the cut and advised that to let Langlois continue would be to risk serious eye injury.

There were some boos from the gallery, mainly because they hated to see a fight stopped.

Langlois' manager Jean Bretonnel and his voluble American representative George Kanter of New York were fuming.

Barely in the dressing room, Kanter, who speaks good French, said in plain English:

"The public was cheated.

"Langlois was coasting in the 10th and 11th rounds in order to finish strong

"The doctors and referees in California are lousy. In New York they are okay."

Langlois, nursing a cut two inches long and a quarter inch wide, said nothing.

Kanter said Olson butted Pierre in the 10th round.

Informed of this, Olson retorted, "If anybody butted in the 10th round, it was Langlois when he weaved and shook his head in the corner."

Olson, shuffling, chopping in one round, standing off and slashing away from long range in another, was far in front at the finish.

Flores and Judge Jack Downey had him in front, under california's 11-point-per-round scoring system, 59½-50½. Judge Vern Bybee scored it 59-51. The Associated Press card read 59½-50½.

Missouri, LaSalle Add Cage Victories

The Associated Press

If, as Coach Sparky Stalcup insists, Missouri's Tigers have been ranked among the nation's top college basketball teams prematurely, what's it going to be like when they hit their stride?

The Tigers, figured in pre-season estimates to give Colorado some trouble in their Big Seven conference race, are ranked No. 6 in this week's Associated Press poll and they're surging along like the Missouri River at flood stage.

Stalcup's "overrated" Missourians cuffed the Big Ten in three meetings, spilling Iowa, Wisconsin and Indiana after an openig loss to Illinois. And now they've staged a raid on the Southwest Conference with Arkansas the 77-58 victim last night.

That was about the picture elsewhere on a light night as other members of the top ten won handily, with one or two looking like their old selves again after suffering upsets.

LaSalle, ranked No. 1 gave All-America Tom Gola the reins and trotted home with a 76-60 victory over previously unbeaten Lafayette. Gola scored 35 points—with 15 field goals that missed his own team record by one—while playing the full 40 minutes as the Explorers won their fifth straight without defeat.

No. 2 ranked Kentucky was idle, but third place Illinois and No. 4 North Carolina State moved right along. The Illini, with center George Bonsalle scoring 24, whipped Miami of Ohio 97-72 for their fourth success while State made it No. 7 by clubbing South Carolina 91-62.

Dayton, No. 5, had the toughest assignment and held out for a 71-67 overtime victory over 12th ranked Louisville, considered one of the powers of the South. It was Louisville's first setback in seven starts. Dayton now is 5-0.

Duquesne (No. 9) rebounded from its defeat in the Steel Bowl with a 74-52 victory over College of the Pacific.

Holy Cross, ranked 19th and also once beaten, matched Duquesne's comeback and played its best game of the season while lacing previously unbeaten St. Anselm's 96-58.

The only surprise of the night saw Purdue finally knock off Notre Dame, No. 20, after having failed to beat the Irish since 1947. The score was 78-58 as Notre Dame lost its second decision.

All the other ranked teams were idle.

Two other teams fell from the unbeaten list with Michigan toppled by once-beaten Marquette 83-78 and the St. Louis Billikens mopping up Mississippi 82-68.

Mays Is Voted Most Valuable

Ted Kluszewski Is Runner-Up

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Howard Mays, spectacular center fielder of the world champion New York Giants, was voted today the Most Valuable Player in the National League for 1954 by the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America.

The young outfielder, whose amazing expioits at bat and in the field were prime factors in the Giants' pennant and World Series success, was the overwhelming choice of the 24-main committee, receiving 283 points as compared to 217 for runner-up Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati.

The 23-year-old wonder boy was named on every ballot. He received 16 first-place votes, 2 for second, 3 for third and 1 each for fourth, fifth and seventh. Kluszewski, the Redlegs' slugging first baseman, received 7 first-place votes, 6 for second, 2 for third, 5 for fourth and 1 each for fifth, sixth and eighth.

Pitcher Johnny Antonelli of the Giants finished third in the voting with 154 points; outfielder Duke Snider of the Brooklyn Dodgers, fourth, 135; and shortstop Al Dark of the Giants, fifth, with 110. Dark received the other first-place vote.

Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals was sixth with 97 votes, followed by Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phils with 70. Then came Joe Adcock of the Milwaukee Braves with 60, Pee Wee Reese of Brooklyn, 53, and Gil Hodges, also of the Dodgers, 40.

Playing his first full season in the majors, Mays captured the National League batting championship with .345, led the circuit with 15 triples and also won the slugging title with an impressive .667 percentage. His extra-base output included 33 doubles, 13 triples and 41 homers. He also was up among the lealers with 110 runs batted in.

The lithe, 5-foot-10½ native of Fairfield, Ala., was just as spectacular in the field. His amazing catches and throws had veteran observers comparing him to such former center field standouts as Tris Speaker, Joe DiMaggio, Terry Moore and Max Carey.

His sensational running, back-to-the-plate catch of Vic Wertz's 450-foot drive to deepest center which saved the opening game of the recent World Series, is regarded as one of the greatest ever made in any fall classic.

Trabert, Seixas Send U. S. Into Zone Finals

BRISBANE, Australia (AP)—Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas sent the United States into a 2-0 lead over Sweden today in the interzone final for the right to challenge Australia for the coveted Davis Cup—symbol of world tennis supremacy.

Notre Dame Suffered Most From Penalties

NEW YORK (AP)—Notre Dame suffered more from penalties than any other major college football team this fall, but had a highly successful season nevertheless. Holy Cross benefitted most from opposition fumbles, but that didn't help it avoid a losing campaign.

These were among the miscellaneous statistical items released today by the NCAA Srvice Bureau. Notre Dame was penalized the most, 87 yards a game. At the same time the Irish picked up only 29.5 yards a game from penalties against the opposition. So Notre Dame was losing 57.5 yards a game "to the referee"—but won nine out of ten anyhow.

Meanwhile, Holy Cross tied the all-time major-college record by recovering 32 opponents' fumbles—but won only three out of ten. Holy Cross opponents fumbled 48 times this year.

The presents were donated by various organizations just in case Santa Claus loses touch with the players while they are away from home on the holiday.

Big 3 Envoys Meet On Use Of Atomic Weapons In War

PARIS (AP)—The Big Three foreign ministers meet here today in an effort to decide who should unleash the West's atomic weapons in th event of a Communist attack.

Control of the atomic arms was the major issue facing U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, French Premier - Foreign Minister Pierre Mendes - France and Britain's Sir Anthony Eden in their session prior to the yearend meeting tomorrow morning of the North Atlantic Council of Foreign, defense and finance ministers.

NATO's Military Committee—the chiefs of staff of the 14 member countries — agreed yesterday on a report to the ministers basing their future defense plans on the use of such new weapons as the American atomic Cannon. Unless such arms can be used to meet a sudden attack, the military experts agreed, the West must raise standing armies much larger than those now planned.

But the NATO chiefs of staff said their government's political leaders, not the military, must decide when a clash constitutes an outbreak of war requiring the more terrifying weapons in the Western arsenal. Many Europeans fear if such a decision is left to the military, a quick - triggered general could touch off World War II—by using an atomic weapon in a local frontier clash that otherwise could be mediated.

To counter objections that consultation among all 14 NATO governments would be too length a process in an emergency, French drafted a proposal that the NATO Council give emergency powers to act for it in a crisis to a new political "standing group" set up in Paris by the United States, Britain and France.

Such a three-man committee would parallel NATO's military standing group which the Big Three maintains in Washington to direct the alliance's military strategy.

Pentagon Plans New Cuts In Armed Forces

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon is planning a further reduction in the nation's military manpower, with the bulk of the cut coming in Army ranks.

Secretary of Defense Wilson told newsmen last night the total strength of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force would be 'something less' than the figure of 3,047,000 at which it had been planned previously to level off in the fiscal year starting next July 1.

Wilson declined to give specific figures.

President Eisenhower gave a noncommital reply when asked at his news conference yesterday about a report that the new decrease might amount to about 100,000 men.

When the Korean fighting halted a year and a half ago, military manpower strength was about 3,558,000. Then a slow, steady cutback was started. Until yesterday, the program apparently was aimed at reducing the force to 3,047,000, of which 1,173,000 would be in the Army, and maintaining it there for an indefinite period.

At his news conference, Eisenhower said the active armed forces should be backed by an effective reserve, for which a program was outlined by the President to congressional leaders at a White House meeting Tuesday. When such a reserve was produced, the President said, it would be possible to cut back on active personnel.

However, Wilson's disclosure of intention to go through with a reduction indicated the decision had been made without waiting to find whether the new Congress would adopt the administration's reserve program.

Beefsteak Dinner Delights Menfolk

If during the holidays, you want to give a stag party for your husband, your best bet will be an old-fashioned beefsteak dinner. We went to one recently at Cavanagh's restaurant, a New York landmark on West 23rd street.

We wore a large white butchers apron and a chef's cap. No knives or forks allowed, only fingers.

The menu: Baked oysters Casino, hearts of celery and olives, sliced beefsteak on toast (all you could eat), and if you wanted it, all the beer you could drink, French fried poatoes. For dessert — and this is gospel truth — lamb kidneys and baby spring lamb chop, then coffee.

The price of this gargantuan meal was $9.25 a person. It was the favorite Cavanagh menu we were told, of such famous patrons as Presidents Grover Cleveland and Theodore Roosevelt; also of Diamond Jim Brady, Enrico Caruso, John L. Sullivan and Al Smith. They all ate with their fingers just the way we did.

In case your husband resembles any of these worthies and you decide as a Christmas gesture to give him an old-fashioned beefsteak party, you'll be interested in what Jack Andrews, the chef, advises.

1. Select prime sirloin steak, 3 inches thick. All one pound per person. Have butcher bone steak and trim off most of the fat.

2. Dip steak in olive oil flavored with garlic. Place under highest flame in broiler. Broil 7 minutes on each side for medium, 5 minutes on each side for rare.

3. Slice crosswise against the grain). Each 2 pounds should give about 16 quarter-inch slices. Place each slice on hot toast finger and saturate with drawn butter or margarine. Sprinkle with chopped parsley.

Don't forget the chef's hats and white butcher aprons for the guests. And fingers only from beginning to end.

Here's Christmas Pudding, Fruit Shrub

We've been on the lookout for recipes to add to Christmas festivities. This Christmas-wreath pudding comes from a Michigan test kitchen. The cranberry shrub is from the famous Toll House in Whitman, Mass. It is to start Christmas dinner with a toast to Santa Claus.

Christmas Wreath Pudding
(Yield: 1 wreath, 9 inches in diameter)

Candied fruits to decorate
1¾ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
¾ cup sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon allspice
1 cup chopped dates
½ cup chopped nutmeats
1 cup unsweetened pineapple juice
1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
¼ cup melted shortening
½ cup ready-to-eat bran

Arrange candied fruits in bottom of greased 9-inch ring mold. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt sugar and spices. Stir in dates and nut meats. Combine pineapple juice, vanilla, shortening and ready-to-eat bran. Add pineapple juice mixture to dry ingredients, stirring only until combined.

Pour batter carefully over candied fruits; bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about one hour. Turn out on serving plate while hot and serve either hot or cold with lemon or hard sauce.

Toll House Fruit Shrub
(Yield: 3 to 4 servings)

One cup cranberry juice cocktail
¼ cup lemon juice
½ cup orange juice
1 tablespoon rum
½ cup syrup from spiced eaches, spiced watermelon rind or other sweet pickled or spiced fruit.

Combine all ingredients and chill thoroughly. Add sugar if necessary.

ALLEGED FUUGITIVE HELD

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Columbus police today held a man identifying himself as Charles K. Wingard, 23, of Canton, Ohio, who turned himself over to them yesterday. Police held him for investigation of his story that he walked away from an Opelika, Ala., jail last September.

When washing synthetic fabrics, allow them to drip dry for greatest freedom from wrinkles. This is true of rayon, acetate, nylon, orlon and dacron. Remove the garment from the washer before the spin or extraction step.

Chicken Casserole Is Festive

For holiday parties here are two delicious treats. We think you will like them as much as we did.

Festive Chicken Casserole

Two 4 to 4½ pound fowls
1½ cups rce (4½ cups, cooked)
2-3 cup (1 1-3 prints) butter or margarine
2 tablespoons minced parsley
½ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon salt
dash of pepper and cloves
1 medium onion, minced
5 tablespoons flour
2 cups chicken stock
one 8-ounce can sliced mushrooms
¼ cup chopped pimento
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
½ cup sherry (optional)

Cook fowls in boiling salted water until tender (2 to 2½ hours). Remove meat from carcasses and cut in generous pieces. Cook rice in boiling, salted water until tender. Drain. Add 2-3 print butter or margarine, parsley, nutmeg, salt, pepper, cloves. Mix thoroughly. Set aside. Melt remaining butter or margarine and saute onion until transparent. Blend in flour. Gradually add chicken stock and continue stirring until thickened. Add drained mushrooms, pimento, salt, pepper and sherry (if desired). Remove from heat. Arrange chicken pieces in bottom of greased casserole. Cover with sauce. Pack rice over top quite firmly, leaving hole in center to allow steam to escape. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Garnish as desired.

Holiday Cranberry Salad
(Yield: eight ½-cup servings)

One and one-half packages plain gelatin
1-3 cup cold water
3 cups fresh cranberries
1 orange, peeled
2-3 cup sugar
½ pint cottage cheese (1 cup)
¾ cup real mayonnaise
2 tablespoons lemon juice
salad greens

Soak gelatin in cold water 5 minutes. Heat over hot water until dissolved. Put cranberries and orange through a coarse grinder. Add sugar and cottage cheese, mayonnaise and lemon juice.

Stir in dissolved gelatin. Pour into 1-quart mold or 8 individual molds and chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with salad greens and additional mayonnaise, if desired. Serve with cold sliced turkey and roast ham.

Try Miniature Christmas Crate

From the New Boston Inn in the Berkshires we just received a miniature Christmas crate filled with truly wonderful delicacies. Chocolate mocha sauce is one of them, rum butterscotch sauce is another. Both will be perfect spooned over the Christmas ice cream.

Rosamond Chapin, who owns the inn at New Boston, Massachusetts with her husband (it was built in 1760), is one of America's great cooks. Some of the other delicacies she puts up in containers wrapped in green and red are brandy liver pate, cocktail sauce for sea food, chutney and mincemeat — all remarkably tempting. So if you want to put a touch of New England into your Christmas, the New Boston Inn specialties will do it deliciously.

Marian Young Taylor's excellent new cookbook "Cooking for Compliments" (Barrows — $2.95) can help make Christmas more fun, too. Both as a gift for a friend and an inspiration to yourself, it's an important contribution to more pleasurable living.

Here's wintertime menu suggestions from "Cooking for Compliments": Tomato and sauerkraut cocktail, garlic strips, Roquefort pork chops, cinnamon apple rings, potato pancakes, sesame salad, pumpernickel bread, baked peaches with mincemeat, coffee.

Sometime during the holidays, enjoy this recipe from Marian Young Taylor's book (Mrs. Taylor is mother of twins and well-known radio personality).

Apricot - Stuffed Pork Chops

Buy double pork chops and have the butcher cut pockets in them. Wipe dry, salt and pepper, and stuff them with chopped spiced apricots. Fasten the pockets with picks (does this make them "picked pockets"?). Arrange the chops in a greased baking dish. Put a few sliced apricots on top of each. Pour curry sauce over them. (For 6 chops: 1½ cups medium cream sauce, 1 teaspoon or more of curry powder, a few grains of cayenne), Bake covered at 350 degrees F. for about an hour or until the chops are tender.

A Dutch oven is a practical kitchen buy because it may be used four ways: For roasting in the oven, for roasting or braising on top of the range, for casserole dishes and as a saucepan.

CRANBERRIES HAVE NUMBER OF USES

Because of their lovely redness and good flavor, cranberries are a taste complement to Christmas meals. As a sauce or jelly with the turkey, they're traditional. But there are other uses of this delicacy which is so plentiful at Yuletide.

With orange marmalade, candied cranberries are the base of a homemade ice cream. With lemon and apricot, they make a fine relish for freezing.

A criss - cross cranberry-apple pie is a novel dessert, one not quite so rich as plum pudding, but with all the air of tradition.

Combine Cape Cod cranberries and apples in a syrup and cook five minutes. Put in unbaked pie shell, top with lattice crust. Bake about 20-25 minutes.

ASPARAGUS ON TOAST

4 tablespoons butter or margarine
4 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
1 cup grated sharp cheddar cheese
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
salt and pepper
canned asparagus
toast and paprika

Melt butter in saucepan over low heat; blend in flour. Add milk and cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until thickened and bubbly. Over low heat stir in cheese until melted.

Add Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper to taste. Heat canned asparagus in its liquid; drain well; arrange on toast; pour cheese sauce over; sprinkle wits paprika. Serve at once.

Make Chicken For Party Fare

During this season of special parties, recipes for ways to cook chicken are important. Here are two from our well-used files.

To cook stewing chicken to obtain meat for slicing, salads, creaming, etc.: place whole or cut up chicken in kettle. Add salt, pepper, celery leaves, onion and carrot. Add ½ to 1 cup water and ½ to ¾ teaspoon salt for each pound. (Quantity of water used depends on amount of broth desired).

Simmer until thickest portions are just fork-tender, 2½ to 4 hours. Remove chicken. Cool chicken and broth promptly. Cover and refrigerate unless served immediately.

Baked Chicken Salad
(4 servings)

Two cups cooked chicken, ½-inch dice
1½ cups celery, ¼-inch dice
¾ cup chopped toasted almonds
2 teaspoons finely chopped onion
grated rind of ½ lemon
1 tablesoon lemon juice
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ to 2 3 cup salad dressing
salt and pepper
1 cup (¼ pound) grated Cheddar cheese
1 cup crushed potato chips (4 ounces)

Measure chicken, celery, almonds, onion, lemon rind, and juice, and pepper into mixing bowl. Add salad dressing. Toss lightly to blend ingredients.

If desired, add additional salt and pepper. Divide into 4 individual shallow casseroles or a 1-quart casserole. Sprinkle cheese over top. Top with the potato chips. Place casseroles on baking sheet and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 25 minutes, or until the cheese begins to bubble. Cranberry sauce is a good accompaniment.

BUTTERSCOTCH BANANA PUDDING

1 package butterscotch pudding
1 egg (separated)
2 cups milk
1 large banana (diced)

Place pudding powder in sauce pan. Beat egg yolk slightly; add milk and beat enough to combine; add to pudding powder gradually, blending well. Cook and stir over moderate heat until mixture comes to a boil and is thickened. Remove from heat. Beat egg white until just stiff but still moist; fold in hot pudding mixture gradually, then diced banana. Turn into sherbet glasses; chill.

SPICY TONGUE SANDWICHES

¾ cup ground cooked smoked or pickled tongue (pack down when measuring)
3 tablespoons mayonnaise or mayonnaise type salad dressing
2 tablespoons pickle relish
1 teaspoon bottled horseradish
1 teaspoon prepared mustard

Mix tongue, mayonnaise, pickle relish, horseradish and mustard together thoroughly with a fork. Makes about 1 cup. Use with rye or other bread, spreading ¼ cup filling for each sandwich.

Make An Old Style Fruitcake

We just received a rich beautiful fruitcake from Martha Stewart Tupper, who grew up in Fayette, Mississippi. Her mother used to start working on Christmas fruitcakes six weeks in advance. The children sat by the fireplace at night pitting raisins, slicing citron and chopping nuts. "It was a regular family production," Mrs. Tupper, distinguished home economist said, as we cut into her really outstanding cake.

Here's her recipe. It costs only about 42 cents a pound to make.

Brazil Nut Fruitcake
(Yield: 4½ pounds fruitcake)

One and one quarter cups shelled Brazil nuts
3 ounces finely cut candied orange peel
6 ounces thinly sliced citron
7¼ ounce package pitted dates, finely cut
2 cups raisins
1 cup currants
⅛ cup well-drained maraschino cherries
2 cups sifted all purpose flour
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon allspice
½ teaspoon ground cloves
½ cup shortening
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
4 eggs
3 tablespoons unsulphured molasses
½ cup orange juice

Cover nuts with cold water and bring slowly to a boil and boil three minutes, or until the nuts can be sliced easily. Drain and cut in thin, lengthwise slices. If desired, reserve perfect slices for decorating top of cakes. Combine remaining nuts in bowl with orange peel, citron, dates, raisins, currants and cherries.

Sift together flour, baking soda salt and spices; mix ½ cup with the fruit and nut mixture. Cream shortening with orange rind in large mixing bowl; add brown sugar and cream well. Beat in eggs one at a time. Combine molasses with orange juice and add alternately with dry ingredients to shortening mixture. Mix in prepared nuts and fruits.

Turn into 4 loaf pans 6 x 3 x 2 inches, or 4 6-inch round pans or into a 10-inch tube pan, which have been greased and lined on the bottom with waxed paper. To decorate cakes, arrange nut slices to form flowers; press additional cherries in center. Bake in very slow oven (275 degrees F.) 1 hour and 30 minutes for loaf pans and round pans, and 2 hours for tube pan. Remove from oven and brush with glaze.

Fruit Cake Glaze

One tablespoon light corn syrup
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 tablespoons water
2 teaspoons lemon juice

Combine corn syrup, brown sugar and water. Stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved; bring to full boil; add lemon juice.

CURRIED PECAN RICE

1 cup converted-type rice
2¼ cups boiling water
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 teaspoon curry powder
4 teaspoons currants rinsed in hot water and drained)
½ cup chopped (medium fine) pecans

Put rice, boiling water and salt in 1-quart saucepan; bring to a boil. Cover and cook, over heat just low enough so water bubbles gently, until rice is cooked through and water is absorbed — about 25 minutes.

Cut butter in small bits and add; sprinkle curry powder over top of rice. Add currants and pecans and toss gently with fork so curry powder colors rice evenly. Serve at once or keep warm uncovered in a low oven. Makes 6 servings.

Pumpkins are a source of vitamin A, and when made into pies, furnish the family with additional nutritive values of whole milk and fresh eggs, the home agent says.

CORNBREAD STUFFING (for Roast Chicken)

½ cup butter or margarine
1 medium-sized onion (finely diced)
6 cups crumbled cornbread (made without any or very little sugar)
2 slices bread (cut into tiny cubes)
½ cup water
¾ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon poultry seasoning
1 teaspoon celery salt

Melt butter in large skillet; add onion and cook over low heat until wilted. Add cornbread and bread and mix well. Stir water with salt, pepper, poultry seasoning and celery salt; sprinkle over cornbread mixture and mix well. Use as stuffing for roasting chicken that is 5 to 6 pounds before having head, feet and insides removed. Spoon stuffing lightly into body and neck cavites; roast according to standard directions.

Cornbread that is several days old, if it has been stored in covered container, may be used.

ORANGE SALAD

4 tablespoons olive or other salad oil
1 tablespoon wine vinegar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
⅛ teaspoon salt
freshly ground pepper
½ teaspoon ground dinger
3 large oranges
1 medium size cucumber
3 cups shredded iceberg lettuce

Put oil, vinegar, lemon juice, salt, pepper (to taste) and ginger in a small jar with a tight cover; shake well. Peel oranges so they are free of white membrane; cut sections free from dividing membranes. Scrub cucumber in cold water and dry; do not remove peel.

Slice cucumber very thin—there should be about 1 cup. Arrange lettuce on 4 salad plates; arrange orange segments and sliced cucumber over lettuce. Shake dressing thoroughly; spoon 1½ tablespoons of it over each salad. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

BRAZIL NUT TEASERS

1½ cups shelled Brazil nuts
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 teaspoon celery salt
½ teaspoon garlic salt
½ teaspoon paprika

Cover nuts with cold water; bring slowly to a boil; simmer 2 to 3 minutes. Drain and cut into thin lengthwise slices, about ⅛ inch thick. Dot with butter; sprinkle with celery salt, garlic salt and paprika. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 15 to 20 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Prize-Winning Open Sesame Pie

Toast 2 to 4 tablespoons sesame seeds in 9-inch pie pan at 325 degrees F. for 8 to 10 minutes until light golden brown. Remove seeds, then turn oven to 450 degrees F.

Sift together 1 cup sifted enriched flour and ½ teaspoon salt into the mixing bowl. Add the toasted sesame seeds.

Cut in 1-3 cup shortening until particles are the size of small peas.

Sprinkle 3 to 4 tablespoons cold water over mixture, a little at a time while tossing and stirring lightly with fork. Add water to driest particles, pushing lumps to side until dough is just moist enough to hold together.

Form into a ball. Flatten to about ½ inch thickness. Smooth dough at edges.

Roll out on floured pastry cloth or board to a circle 1½ inches larger than inverted 9-inch pie pan.

Fit loosely into pie pan. Gently pat out air pockets. Fold edge to form a standing rim. Flute. Prick generously with fork.

Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes until golden brown. Cool.

Chocolate Pie Is Holiday Dessert

Looking for something special for dessert with your Christmas dinner?

Try this attractive chocolate pie. The filling is rich and smooth, the crust crisp and the topping pretty as a picture. The design is made by using a cake decorator filled with whipped evaporated milk and is not too difficult to do.

1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin
¾ cup sugar
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 egg yolk, slightly beaten
¾ cup milk
3 squares unsweetened chocolate
1 cup evaporated milk, whipped
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 baked 9-inch pie shell

Mix gelatin, sugar and salt in top of double boiler. Combine egg yolk and milk and add to gelatin mixture. Add chocolate. Cook over boiling water until chocolate is melted, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat.

Beat with egg beater until mixture is smooth and blended. Chill until thickened. Fold in whipped evaporated milk and vanilla. Pile into baked pie shell. Chill.

Place 1 cup whipping cream, 2 teaspoons confectioners sugar, and ½ teaspoon vanilla in a chilled bowl. Beat until cream holds its shape. Add a few drops green coloring and blend carefully. Put about one-fourth of whipped cream mixture in cake decorator, and, using small round point, draw a spray of spruce tree branches on top of pie filling.

Then using leaf point of decorator, draw a ribbon bow at base of spray. Place remaining whipped cream in serving dish and srinkle with about 2 tablespoons chopped pistachio nuts. Serve with pie.

For a sweeter filling, increase sugar to 1 cup.

To whip evaporated milk, pour 1 cup into freezing tray. Chill in freezing compartment of refrigerator until tiny ice crystals begin to form around edges (about ½ hour). Spoon into a cold bowl and whip rapidly with cold beater until milk is very stiff.

Cook frozen chopped spinach as directed on package. Drain thoroughly; reheat with a little heavy cream and butter or margarine. Easy and delicious!

Santa Partial To Walnut Recipes

Oregon is proud of its walnuts. It's time now for all of us, no matter where we live, to begin seeking walnut recipes because Santa Claus is very partial to them.

Here are some suggestions from Emma States an outstanding northwest food specialist:

Oregon Walnut Bread

Three cups all-purpose flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup sugar
1 teasoon salt
1 cup choped walnut meats
3 tablespoons butter, margarine or other shortening
1 egg, well beaten
1¼ cups milk

Sift flour once, measure add baking powder, sugar and salt and sift together three times. Add nuts. Melt shortening and add to beaten egg and milk. Combine this with the dry ingredients. Stir only until blended. Bake in greased loaf pan (350 degrees F.) 1 hour and 10 minutes.

Quick Salted Walnuts

One tablespoon butter, margarine or cooking oil, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup walnut meats.

Heat the butter or oil in a skillet. Add walnut halves and stir constantly over low heat until the nut meats are heated through. The nut meats become crisp as they cool. Drain on absorbent paper and sprinkle with salt.

Crisp Chinese noodles are delicious served atop creamed salmon and peas, creamed hard - cooked sliced eggs, and creamed dried beef.

10 Years Ago Hitler Made Last Desperate Move Of War

Editor's Note — The following anniversary story on the Battle of the Bulge, as seen from the German side, was written by Willy M. Horbach, a member of the Associated Press staff in Bonn who served three years in the German army.

By WILLY M. HORBACH

BON, Germony (AP)—On a freezing December morning 10 years ago Adolf Hitler made his last desperate gamble to defeat the Allied armies in the West.

He sacrificed virtually all the mobile strategic reserves Germany still possessed in a bid to snatch the victory he had promised his war-weary people.

At dawn on Dec. 16, 1944, two German Panzer armies moved through misty wods to attack the thinly manned positions of the American 1st Army in the Ardennes Mountains along the German-Belgium border.

It was the start of what the Germans called operation "Wacht am Rhein" (watch on the Rhine) —soon dubbed by the Allies "the Battle of the Bulge."

Within hours the German assault battalions had broken through the American lines and were headed for the River Meuse.

In Germany, people were seized by a mixture of hope and fear. Some hoped the offensive would bring victory. Others feared the agony of war would only be prolonged.

In hindsight, the Ardennes offensive clearly stands out to military historians here as one of the most reckless adventures ever undertaken.

The object was to separate the British and American armies by attacking across Belgium and seizing the important harbor of Antwerp. That would cut the British off from their supply base and force a second 'Dunkirk,' Hitler believed.

Field Marshal Gerd von Rundstedt, German commander in chief in the West, was shocked by Hitler's plan, he told Allied interrogators after the war.

"We had neither the men nor the supplies for such an ambitious plan," he said.

But the Fuehrer had his way and the offensive was hastily prepared.

The tanks of Sepp Dietrich's 6th Panzer S.S. Army were brought across the Rhine. The 5th Panzer Army, under Gen. Hasso von Manteufeel, rumbled into an assembly area in the wooded Eifel Mountains between Bitburg and Kronenburg.

The people there still have vivid memories of that time.

"I have never seen much a lot of tanks and soldiers," says Hans Bosch, a farmer in the Pruem area who lost two sons in the war.

"When I saw all those soldiers that morning I asked them what they were doing. A young officer told me: 'We attack again.'

"I only felt sorry for them. They were so young, as young as my sons were when the army took them."

Many Germans were horrified when word of the offensive reached them. They were the people who had stayd behind in Aachen, Monschau and other border towns when the Americans marched in. They had defied a Nazi order to evacuate their home towns.

Because they had been branded traitors and saboteurs by the Nazi, they had ample cause to fear German recapture of their towns.

The Germans hurled 14 infantry and seven armored division—with 800 tanks—at the weakest section of the long Allied front. "Storm battalions' attacked under covering fire of 2,000 guns.

The American division were outnumbered 4 to 1. But deep snow, steel hills and bad roads slowed down the Germans from the start.

Manteuffel—now a member of the West German Parliament—drove his tanks through the night. But the attackers did not gain as much ground as they expected.

In the North the S.S. Panzer army met determined American resistance around Monschau, on the Belgian border. For days Dietrich was stalled there, giving the Allies time too rush reinforcements to the Meuse—Dietrich's objective.

Manteufeel took over from Dietrich the main punch. His tanks headed for Dinant and Namur while Dietrich was still heavily involved around Monschau, Butgenbach and Malmedy.

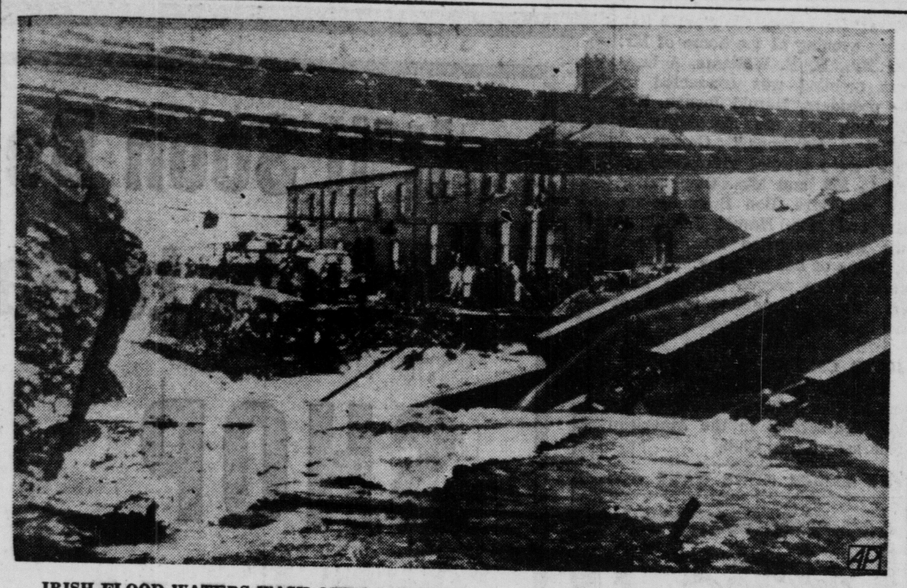
It was the unshakeable American defense of Bastogne—where Brig. Gen. (now Lt. Gen.) Anthony C. McAuliffe said "nuts" to a German demand he surrender—that finally stopped Manteuffel.

Failing to capture the city immediately, he bypassed the defenders—the 101st Airborne Division. But then Bastogne menaced the German rear and held out until relieved by Patton's 3rd Army on Dec. 26. It was the turning point of the Battle of the Bulge.

Manteuffel had to retreat when his tanks were only a few miles from Dinant.

Hitler's Christmas present for the hard-pressed Germans was a flop. He had pulled all his tricks, including sending 40 jeep-loads of English - speaking Germans in American uniform behind the Allied line to spread confusion and sabotage.

The skeletons of burned farmhouses still loom against the skyline today on the scene of what Von Rundstedt called Germany's "Stalingrad No. 2."



IRISH FLOOD WATERS WASH OUT BRIDGE—Bridge of the Great Northern Railway rests in roaring waters of Tolla river in Dublin, Ireland, as residents of the city and halted traffic line the river bank. Thousands of Irishmen were trapped in their homes in worst flood in memory of the capital.

Federal Milk Marketing Ordered In Akron Area

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department has announced a federal milk marketing order will go into effect Jan. 1 in the Akron, Ohio area, because of a favorable vote by area producers.

The department said producers voted almost 72 per cent for approval. The question required a two-thirds vote to carry.

The marketing area will comprise all of Summit County save certain sections of Greene township, and Franklin, Ravenna and Brimfield Townships in Portage County. Also included are Suffield Township in Portage County except for parts in the Stark County marketing area.

Camera Club Offers Hints To Beginners

The Salem Camara Club, whose members are active on a year 'round basis, offers timely suggestions to other camera hobbyis t s who are planning to take color pictures of Christmas lighting displays.

Use either indoor or outdoor film but indoor if possible because with indoor type film a photographer can get warmer tones and floodlighted areas will register better.

Use a tripod because exposures will run from one second to several minutes. A sunshade on the lens will keep out unwanted reflections and a cable release will prevent camera motion on time exposurs.

If you camera shutter has a T (time) setting use it. Push release once to open shutter and again to close it after the desired exposure. If it has only one B (bulb) setting this means that you must push the release to open the shutter and it remains open as long as you keep pressure on the release.

To get the outline of buildings take the picture at dusk. Expose for the lights and you will get all. After dark if you expose for the building you will over-expose the lights. If you expose for the lights you probably will not get much of the building. A flash for fill-in helps here. Be sure not to use a powerful bulb.

Use blue bulbs for outdoor film and SM or SF or C bulbs for indoor film. If other clear white bulbs are used use a filter recommended for type of film (Ansco, Kodachrome or Ekrachrome) used. See package bulbs come in.

Use a reliable photo electric exposure meter if you can possibly get a reading. Longer exposures at smaller openings are recommended. Carl Juergens, publicity director of the Salem Camera Club, says the Kodak master photo guide recommends trying 16 seconds at F8 for the average outdoor lighting. It is suggested that three exposures be made on any important subject.

Take one at what you judge is the correct setting, then take one at the same exposure but open the diaphragm on full stop. Then take a third with one full stop smaller than what you figure for the first. One of these should give you an excellent picture.

Be sure to compare your picture on the ground glass or viewfinder. Move your camera around so that what the finder shows is just what you want. It is important, too, to see that the camera is level. Nothing is worse than a crooked picture on the screen.

Juergens suggests that anyone with other helpful hints on photography call him at ED 2-5834.

Questions, Answers On Social Security

The following are typical questions and answers to social security problems, furnished by Social Security Field Representatives Robert P. King and John Welker at the Salem Postoffice.

Q — I am past 72. Can I start to draw Social Security payments even though I continue to work?

A — Since you are 72, you may draw Social Security payments beginning for January, 1955.

Q — I have been drawing Social Security payments since I became 65 last year, although I have been steadily employed by the State. I expect to continue to work steadily. Will it now be necessary to have my checks stopped?

A — Effective with 1955, all earnings, whether covered by social security or not, must be counted in figuring your total annual earnings for the retirement test. Therefore, if your total annual earnings will exceed $1200, you should notify the Social Security Administration in time to stop your check for January.

Q — If I earn more than $1,200 in 1955 how many months Social Security payments will I lose?

A — The number of months for which you will not be entitled to receive a Social Security payment will depend on your total annual earnings, if you earn more than $80 in wages, or engage in the operation of a business in every month of the year. One month's Social Security benefit will be payable for any month in which you neither earn more than $80 in wages from employment, nor engage actively in any type of self-employment.

Q — I have a part-time job which pays $75 a month. I also do small carpentry jobs on contract. Must I combine my earnings from both sources to figure my total earnings for the year?

A — Yes, your annual earnings for the retirement test effective with 1955 will be the total of all wages and all earnings from self-employment.

Q — I will be 72 in June of 1955. If I limit my earnings to 1200 until I reach age 72, will I be able to earn any amount after reaching 72 and receive payments for all months of the year?

A — No. In figuring your total earnings for the year in which you reach age 72, all earnings for the year must be counted. Benefits will be paid for all months you are 72 or over. However, if your total annual earnings exceed 1200 - payments may not be due you for one or more months prior to the month you become 72.

Q — I understand that with 1955 all earnings, whether covered by Social Security or not; must be counted for the retirement test. Does this mean that I must include house rentals?

A — No only earned income will be included. Income from rentals where personal services are not performed, from investments, annuities, insurance, pensions should not be counted.

Lesson To Remember

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—A nation that fails to remember in peace the lessons it learns in war runs the risk of sudden oblivion.

This would be a good time for every American soldier and civilian—and every schoolchild, too—to get a tablet and write in it 100 times the following sentence:

"I won't be afraid of the other guy, but I'll never underestimate him either."

A decade ago today the entire free world awoke to the value of this lsson with a shocked dismay. This is the tenth anniversary of the foggy morning when Adolf Hitler sprung a German Pearl Harbor on the Allies by suddenly smashing through their lines in the Ardennes.

Looking back now, the frightening thing about the "Battle of the Bulge" is that the Germans achieved almost as complete a tactical surprise as the Japanese had three years before in their war-opning bombing of our bases in Hawaii.

The bitter lesson of Pearl Harbor—"never low-rate your enemy"—had been almost forgotten, certainly by the people at home and probably even by some of the top brass.

Final victory seemed so near in Europe. The Nazis, suffering terrible attrition on every battlefront, appeared close to the crumbling point. Some politicians, businessmen, and triple-dome economic crystal gazers were already worrying about a possible postwar depression.

Then Hitler's legions struck, and his waves of Panzers crashed through the thin, stretched out U.S. line as if it were an eggshell. In 48 hours the American public no longer was concerned about postwar problems. It was praying for the men at the front.

It is only fair to those men at the front to say they never had quite shared the unrestrained optimism of the rear area and home front. The doughboy in the foxhole is rarely given to unrestrained optimism. So long as even one enemy soldier with a rifle lies in wait on the hill before him, the doughboy must always regard the outcome of his next step as doubtful.

But even our most veteran battlefield troops were dazed by the might of the Nazi attack. And the Belgian people, who have the least strength of Germany, were reason to underestimate the numbed.

A nightmare quality of unreality hung over the entire situation.

"Where did the Germans manage to get all those troops and all those tanks"

No one knew. After the war it was learned Hitler had secretly been planning the countroffnsiv for months, had drained other battlefronts to flesh it with muscle and steel and cover it with the Luftwaffe's wings.

The thing is: He had been able to do the unexpected. He didn't win the Battle of the Bulge; but he threw a mighty scare into the Allies. He left sad memories in many American homes, and would have left a lot more if the luck of the battlefield had gone more in his favor.

Remember how many people jeered at Hitler's bombastic promises he would unleash secret new few—the buzz bomb, the V-2 rocket, the jet plane. And he had more planned.

Remember after the war the jokes about the supposedly mechanically ignorant Russians How they could build great planes—except they forgot to build the engines?

But they produced a fine fighter plane in Korea, and came up fast with the atom and hydrogen bomb.

It is never a mark of intelligence to laugh at the other fellow's ignorance. He may just be playing possum. Every pound of real cimmon sense is leavened by an ounce of caution.

And so, on the anniversary of the morning Hitler delivered his surprise package, it is a good occasion to take up our pencils and write 10 times:

"I won't be afraid of the other guy, but I'll never underestimate him either."

It's something worth memorizing—this lesson that as a people we often forget so easily.

"OPEN LETTER TO SANTA CLAUS"

DEAR SANTA:

Here is my Christmas list for you. For sister, please bring her a nice lamp for her bedroom, also a new Cedar Chest to match her bedroom suite. For Daddy, one of them very comfortable chairs so he can sit and watch Television with me after supper. Mommy wants you to bring her a new Tappan range. She says she would bake us more pies and cakes all year long, only her old oven does not work so good, and they never turn out right. We know a new Tappan is the best, so please Santa, don't forget mother. As for me Santa, I would like a big red wagon, a pair of ice skates, a sled, and erector set. And Santa, there is one thing more, if you need help this Christmas. I know where you can get all the help you need. Visit Sebring Furniture, 246 North 15th., in Sebring. They have lots of little workers who would be willing to help you deliver any of my things, as well as to any of my friends. Wishing you and Mrs. Santa a very merry Christmas, and a happy new Year to come, Your very good friend

New Fuel Tank To End Plane Crash Fires

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Administration announced today the achievement of a major step toward preventing plane-crash fires—the development of flexible bladder-type fuel tanks for aircraft.

CAA said in a news release that Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. and U.S. Rubber Co. have developed rubberized nylon materials so strong, light and elastic that:

1. It has now become possible to make integral tanks—fuel cells built into an airplane's wings—out of them.

2. In accidents where passengers can be expected to survive the crash impact, these tanks will not rupture and cause fire.

"The CAA turns this information over to industry for its use in the manufacture and sale of this type of tank," the announcement said.

The flexible materials were developed and tested as part of a six-year research program at the CAA Technical Evaluation Center here.

One CAA official said that fire after the crash, resulting from the rupture of fuel tanks and the spraying of gasoline over the wreckage, accounts for almost one fourth of airplane fatalities.

"The problem of fire deaths after airplane crashes appears on its way out," he said.

Dr. H. J. Osterhof, Goodyear's director of research, said, "The CAA program has proved that these tanks are practical. We could begin manufacturing them for aircraft tomorrow."

DRUGGIST IS CONVICTED

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Harry Maza, 46-year-old operator of two drug stores, begins a five-year prison term today following his conviction on two counts of narcotics law violations. Federal Judge Frank Kloeb, sentencing him yesterday, said a druggist who deals in illegal drug sales "is worse than a prostitute." Maza was also fined $4,000. Two cab drivers, Bernard Levine, 33, and Edward Burtis, 42, were also sentenced in the case. Levine was given a two-year sentence and Burtis was placed on probation for two years.
